Masunungure,2020-11-11 At Independence in 1980 Julius Nyerere called Zimbabwe the jewel of Africa and cautioned its new leaders not to tarnish it Tragically they paid no heed to Africa's esteemed elder statesmen Arguably and only if one ignores the carnage of Gukurahundi the first decade was a developmental one with resources being used prudently to benefit the formerly disadvantaged majority population However the 1990s witnessed a transition from a developmental to a predatory leadership which saw Zimbabwe cross the millennial line in crisis where it has remained ever since While many African countries have moved forward over the last three decades Zimbabwe has gone relentlessly backwards save for the four year interregnum of the tripartite coalition government 2009-2013 Virtually all development indicators point in the wrong direction and the crisis of poverty unemployment and the erosion of health education and other public goods continues unabated The imperatives of political survival and power politics supersede those of sound economics and public welfare Moreover unless good politics are conjoined with a sound people first policy the country will continue sliding downhill Zimbabwe's Trajectory tells the story of the country's post independence dynamics and its recent descent into becoming one of the three most unhappy countries in the world Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. modern globalized age Patterson also examines the critical role of women in the history of slavery the significance of manumission in the formation of Christian doctrine and the devastating toll of genocide and undaunted revolt of slaves in Jamaican slave society Concluding with an investigation of contemporary slavery and other forms of servitude this book urges readers to reckon with the brutal legacies of the past and its alarming modern day persistence Enslavement Past and Present deepens our understanding of the broad spectrum of evil and human bondage throughout history an understanding that is essential for contemporary struggles to build a more inclusive society for all
