Zimsec November 2015 Shona Novels

Terence Tapiwa Muzorewa

Zimsec November 2015 Shona Novels:

Africa at the Crossroads Nhemachena, Artwell, Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2017-04-11 This volume interrogates and theorises various forms of fundamentalism and fetishism that impinge on Africa and the African people. The book valiantly rethinks and unpacks these forms of fundamentalisms and fetishisms offering in the process critical vistas for students, scholars and activists on matters of decoloniality and transformation. By meticulously and painstakingly unpacking pertinent issues, the book provides unparalleled intellectual milestones and platforms for the oncoming revolution and quest for justice in the form of decoloniality and transformation. Drawing from several disciplinary domains such as Development Studies, Security Studies, Political Anthropology and Sociology, Economic Anthropology and Social studies, English Studies, History, Philosophy and Religious Studies, and drawing from scholars from across different universities in the Southern African region, the book provides multiple lenses from which to understand the complex goings on in a continent that can no longer afford to simply fold hands and watch while its citizens suffer multiple forms of coloniality, fetishisms and fundamentalisms.

Neo-Liberal Urban Development in Post-Colonial Zimbabwe Terence Tapiwa Muzorewa, 2025-07-14 This book investigates the role of private land developers in the development of Ruwa Town in post colonial Zimbabwe. Whereas other post colonial established towns in the country emerged from direct public investment through the Growth Point policy, Ruwa emerged from a public private partnership approach. The development of Ruwa Town is therefore a valuable example of a new post colonial experience in urban planning and development which is a clear departure from the colonial town planning which was premised on racial segregation. This book offers unique insights into the historical context, the role of private developers in the growth of the city, the impact of their involvement, bringing a comparative analysis with state led development. It offers a valuable contribution to the field of urban studies, particularly within the context of urban development in post colonial Zimbabwe and in Africa.

The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda, 2016-11-22 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War, 1966-1980. Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict. The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness. Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower.

Africanfuturism Kimberly Cleveland, 2024-02-27 In the past few decades, Western studies of Afrofuturism have grown to encompass examples deriving from multiple sites across the diaspora as well as from the African continent. However, an increasing number of Africans and Africanists have voiced their concerns about grouping African work under the larger umbrella of Afrofuturism without distinction and have emphasized the need to investigate the differences between African American and African production This book offers an introduction to Africanfuturism a body of African speculative works that is distinguishable from albeit related to US based Afrofuturism Kimberly Cleveland uses Africanfuturism as an intellectual lens to explore works that embody combinations of possibilities challenges and concerns related to what lies ahead for the continent and its peoples This book highlights twenty first century film video painting sculpture photography tapestry novels short stories comic books song lyrics and architecture by African creatives of different nationalities races ethnicities genders and generations Cleveland analyzes the ideas and opinions of African intellectuals and cultural producers combining interviews with historical research Each chapter features one of Africanfuturism s most common themes space and time exploration creation of worlds technology and the digital divide Sankofa and remix and mythmaking This investigation of Africanfuturism is geared toward students academics and Afrofuturism enthusiasts and its included discussion questions facilitate classroom use The book illuminates Africa s place in the worlds of science fiction and fantasy and how Africanfuturist work builds on the continent s own traditions of speculative expression Because these creative works disrupt the history of Western domination in Africa Cleveland also connects Africanfuturism with the process of decolonization and addresses specific ways in which African creatives re center indigenous beliefs strategies and approaches in their production Africanfuturism encourages both imaginative possibilities and potential real world outcomes highlighting the rich contributions of Africans to the vision of future worlds

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation

Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe s anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe s liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country s interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies

Religion and Social Marginalization in Zimbabwe Togarasei, Lovemore, Bishau, David, Chitando, Ezra, 2020-07-13 Marginalization means being disregarded ostracized harassed disliked persecuted or generally looked down upon Marginalized people often include women and children the poor the disabled sexual religious or ethnic minorities refugees The marginalized are those who are socially politically culturally or economically excluded from main stream society In history the Church in Zimbabwe has played a role in improving the lives of the marginalized but what is religion especially

Christianity doing for the marginalized now Although religion is also implicated in marginalisation the contributions in this volume did not address this angle as they focused on the role that religion can and should play to fight marginalization The chapters come from two conferences 2012 2014 that were held under the flag of ATISCA The contributions have been updated to include later developments and publications

Rethinking Securities in an Emergent Technoscientific New World Order Munyaradzi Mawere, Artwell Nhemachena, 2018-03-13 The emergent technoscientific New World Order is being legitimised through discourses on openness and inclusivity The paradox is that openness implies vulnerability and insecurities particularly where closure would offer shelter While some actors including NGOs preach openness of African societies Africans clamour for protection restitution and restoration Africans struggle for ownership and access to housing for national cultural religious economic and social belonging that would offer them the necessary security and protection including protection from the global vicissitudes and matrices of power In the presence of these struggles to presuppose openness would be to celebrate vulnerability and insecurities This book examines ways in which emergent technologies expose Africans and more generally peoples of the global south to political economic social cultural and religious shocks occasioned by the coloniality of the global matrices of power It notes that there is the use by global elites of technologies to incite postmodern revolutions designed to compound the vicissitudes and imponderables in the already unsettled lives of people north and south Particularly targeted by these technologies are African and other governments that do not cooperate in the fulfilment of the interests of the hegemonic global elites The book is handy to students and practitioners in security studies African studies development studies global studies policy studies and political science

Making Politics in Zimbabwe's Second Republic Gordon Moyo, Kirk Helliker, 2023-05-16 The book provides a fresh and innovative interpretation of the new government of Zimbabwe led by Emmerson Mnangagwa which emerged in late 2017 after the downfall of Robert Mugabe It demonstrates the contradictory character of the Mnangagwa government involving both continuities and discontinuities in relation to Mugabe's regime The temptation amongst Zimbabwean scholars has been to focus on the continuities and to dismiss the significance of any discontinuities notably reform measures This book adopts an alternative approach by identifying and focusing specifically on the existence of a formative project of the Mnangagwa's Second Republic further analysing its political significance as well as risks and limitations While doing so the book covers topics such as reform measures reconciliation transitional justice corruption the media agriculture devolution and the debt crisis as well as health and education Discussing the limitations of these different reform measures the book highlights that any scholarly failure to identify the risks of the project leads to an incomplete understanding of what constitutes the Mnangagwa's Second Republic The book appeals to students scholars and researchers of Zimbabwean and African studies political science and international relations as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of political reform processes in Zimbabwe highlights the complex interplay between religion and sexuality in Zimbabwe. It shows how religion both facilitates and complicates the expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe. Approaching religion from a broader perspective, this volume reviews the impact of African Indigenous Religions and Christianity in its varied forms on the construction and expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe. These contributors examine the role of indigenous beliefs as well as interpretations of sacred texts in the understanding of sexuality in Zimbabwe. They also address themes relating to sexual diversity and sexual and gender-based violence. Overall, this book sheds light on the ongoing relevance and strategic role of religion to contemporary discourses on human sexuality.

Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12. This book explores the intersections of gender, religion, and migration within the context of post-independent Zimbabwe, with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development. By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women's and girls' lived realities, the book addresses the need for gender equity, gender inclusion, and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions. This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious-cultural ideologies on the status of women. In doing so, it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move. Furthermore, chapters show how space continues to be gendered in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes. Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa, this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies, Women's Studies, African Studies, Development Studies, as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists.
