
Praxis PLT k-6 (ETS based questions) Complete Study guide (2022).

Ability grouping. - The process of placing students of similar abilities into groups, and attempting to match instruction to the needs of these groups.

Authentic activity. - Approach to instruction similar to one students might encounter in the outside world.

Cognitive apprenticeship - Mentorship in which a teacher and a student work together on a challenging task and the teacher gives guidance about how to think about the task.

Collaboration - A philosophy about how to relate to others—how to learn and work.

Collective self-efficacy - Shared belief of members of a group that they can be successful when they work together on a task.

Deductive reasoning - Process of drawing a logical inference about something that must be true, given other information that has already been presented as true.

Expository instruction - Approach to instruction in which information is presented in more or less the same form in which students are expected to learn it.

Guided participation - A child's performance, with guidance and support, of an activity in the adult world.

Heterogeneous ability grouping - A strategy that groups students of varied ability instead of by grade/age level.

Inductive reasoning - Collecting data to draw a conclusion that may or may not be true.

Learner-centered instruction - Approach to teaching in which instructional strategies are chosen largely on the basis of students' existing abilities, predispositions, and needs.

Learner-directed instruction - Approach to instruction in which students have considerable say in the issues they address and how to address them.

Learning strategy - Intentional use of one or more cognitive processes for a particular learning task.

Problem-based learning - Classroom activity in which students acquire new knowledge and skills while working on a complex problem similar to those in the outside world.

Reciprocal teaching - Approach to teaching reading and listening comprehension in which students take turns asking teacher-like questions of classmates.
