Zim O Level June Papers 2015

Arrigo Pallotti, Corrado Tornimbeni

Zim O Level June Papers 2015:

Christian Theological Education and the Response to the Crisis in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, Gift Masengwe, 2025-10-02 The book offers an incisive examination of the governing philosophy of the Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front ZANU PF referred to as Zanupfism characterizing it as marked by callousness and malevolence towards dissenting voices from civil society and opposition factions This pernicious application of power extends beyond mere verbal aggression to encompass militaristic actions engendering a profound generational crisis within Zimbabwe The contributors explore the compelling juxtaposition between President Emmerson Mnangagwa and the biblical Nebuchadnezzar II a ruler notorious for his autocratic reign and expansive ambitions Further critically scrutinizing the complicity of neo Pentecostal prophets in the book reveals how these religious figures promote an esoteric understanding of the divine diverging from a theology rooted in justice thereby enabling the oppressive regime's practices This critique underscores the imperative for prophets to recalibrate their theological perspectives urging them to move beyond magical interpretations of faith toward an authentic engagement with a personal God who champions justice The book further encompasses the complex interplay of political and religious narratives examining how church leaders either bolster or undermine Mnangagwa's political ideology highlighting the tendency among certain religious factions to deify political authority ultimately exacerbating societal inequities In advocating for a transformative theological discourse in Zimbabwe the book asserts that religious narratives must serve as instruments for fostering democracy social justice and equity rather than sustaining a status quo that entrenches authoritarian governance The necessity for unified principled resistance grounded in the collective agency of the populace emerges as a salient theme in the quest for meaningful political and social reform

Society, Peace, and Power David Cortright, Melanie Greenberg, Laurel Stone, 2016-10-12 Civil society plays an increasingly powerful role in the global landscape emerging as key actors in preventing and managing conflict and building more peaceful and sustainable societies The multiple case studies featured in this volume illustrate the growth of civil society involvement in national regional and international peacebuilding policy The focus is on multi stakeholder systems based approaches to peacebuilding and human security that involve diverse civil society groups NGOs religious organizations media etc government agencies intergovernmental organizations and security forces This unique comprehensive approach encompasses diverse stakeholders seeking to understand the drivers of conflict and the possibilities for working together to build peace The book illustrates how the involvement of civil society can result in better informed more inclusive more accountable government decision making and more effective peacebuilding policies Importantly a number of the case studies provide a gender perspective on peacebuilding and civil society issues voicing and giving attention to women s perspectives without being focused only on gender issues Further authors from the Global South offer the perspectives of those directly immersed in ongoing struggles for justice and peace Towards Democratic Development States in Southern Africa Godfrey

Kanyenze, Herbert Jauch, 2016-12-14 The dawn of the twenty first century heralded an apparent change of fortunes for most sub Saharan African economies with annual growth averaging over 5% for fifteen years However this was not accompanied by structural transformation poverty food insecurity unemployment and inequality persist Structural transformation has not been and indeed cannot be delivered by market forces and neo liberal economic policies it requires a state committed to development and to achieving it in a democratic way To what extent do the countries of Southern Africa exhibit the characteristics of such a developmental state What steps if any do they need to take in order to become one The book answers the questions with respect to South Africa Botswana Namibia Zimbabwe Angola and Malawi Godfrey Kanyenze and his colleagues have assembled a distinguished team of writers to take the temperature of the regional political economy and chart a path for its future development Corruption, Sustainable Development and Security Challenges in Africa Kempe

Ronald Hope, Sr., 2023-09-07 This book sheds light on Africa s development performance and dynamics arising from the interface between corruption and sustainable development on the one hand and the challenges that poses for peace security and stability Corruption also contributes to the spread of terrorism and violent extremism Pervasive corruption networks often include politicians civil servants working at all levels of state institutions representatives of the private sector and members of crime syndicates The consequences of corruption are detrimental in many aspects such as undermining governments ability to serve public interests and eroding public trust in democratic processes Presenting empirical evidence the book explains why corruption and the looting of staggering amounts of national assets undermine the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and has a negative impact on peace stability security the rule of law gender equality the environment and human rights This makes the book a must read for students researchers and scholars of political science international relations and economics in general as well as African studies development studies and security sector studies in particular covering issues and themes on corruption governance socio economic sustainable development public administration and management policing in an international context police reform and security sector reform It will also serve as a helpful resource for policy makers interested in a better understanding of the connection between corruption sustainable development and security challenges in Sub Saharan Africa

SOUTH AFRICA AA.VV.,2016-11-14 Has the new South Africa once an inspiring rainbow nation failed the expectations it had generated Is the country now in a crisis Two decades after the end of the apartheid regime Africa s southernmost state faces multiple political economic and social challenges A lackluster growth performance is compounded by mounting corruption and political turbulence as well as by the frustration of many ordinary citizens who expected much more rapid social and economic improvement Labour strikes student protests and anti immigrant riots have all been on the rise As a clear sign of increasing dissatisfaction uncertainty and decline the ruling African National Congress recently ran into its worst electoral result ever if still only at local levels Meanwhile Jacob Zuma s embattled presidency marred by allegations of corruption and political cronyism sent South Africa s international image plummeting alongside the Rand the national currency This volume sheds light on the current difficulties and discusses future prospects The new South Africa is a country in dire need for change

A Doctor's Quest Gretchen Roedde,2019-02-16 A doctor grapples with the challenges of mother and child health in the developing world Recounting medical missions in one third of the forty five countries in which she has worked for the past thirty years in Africa Asia and the Caribbean and the South Pacific Dr Gretchen Roedde shares the grim reality of world politics and bureaucratic red tape on the front lines as a doctor in mother and child health and HIV AIDS This second edition updates the progress in reproductive maternal newborn child and adolescent health RMNCAH with additional studies in Afghanistan Laos South Sudan and Nigeria It tells the stories of the hopes of village women struggling to give birth safely of their often corrupt leaders and of countries trying to bring evil despots to justice Roedde analyzes the encouraging momentum in global maternal health while maintaining a focus on equity disparities within and between countries

European Yearbook of International Economic Law 2016 Marc Bungenberg,Christoph Herrmann,Markus Krajewski,Jörg Philipp Terhechte,2016-07-16 Volume 7 of the EYIEL focusses on critical perspectives of international economic law Recent protests against free trade agreements such as the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership TTIP remind us that international economic law has always been a politically and legally contested field This volume collects critical contributions on trade investment financial and other subfields of international economic law from scholars who have shaped this debate for many years. The critical contributions to this volume are challenged and sometimes rejected by commentators who have been invited to be critical with the critics. The result is a unique collection of critical essays accompanied by alternative and competing views on some of the most fundamental topics of international economic law. In its section on regional developments, EYIEL 7 addresses recent megaregional and plurilateral trade and investment agreements and negotiations. Short insights on various aspects of the Transpacific Partnership (TPP) and its sister TTIP are complemented with comments on other developments including the African Tripartite FTA and the negotiations on a plurilateral Trade in Services Agreement (TiSA). Further sections address recent WTO and investment case law as well as recent developments concerning the IMF, UNCTAD and the WCO. The volume closes with reviews of recent books in international economic law. Legal

Protection of Foreign Direct Investment. A Critical Assessment with Focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe

Talkmore Chidede, 2016-09. This study undertakes a critical assessment of the legal protection of foreign direct investments (FDI) in South Africa and Zimbabwe by determining their compliance with the international minimum standards, norms and or best practices on the legal protection of FDI by host states. Firstly, the study argues that foreign investment is much needed in South Africa and Zimbabwe to improve economic growth and development, to create jobs and to increase their competitiveness. However, these benefits are not accrued automatically but rather host states need to create an enabling environment to receive such benefits. Thus, host states need to put an investment scheme into operation to guarantee the legal protection of foreign investments. South Africa and Zimbabwe have at large crafted and implemented investment laws and related policies which tend to be hostile towards foreign investments. Therefore, similar investment laws and related policies in both jurisdictions are analysed. This study will also offer recommendations for a legal investment which is not only flexible, friendly and favourable to foreign investment in South Africa and Zimbabwe but also advances their local economic policies. Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Christine Peta, 2017-10-25. Disabled women represent one of the most marginalised minority groups in the world; hence they are largely silent while their sexuality is ignored, suppressed, forbidden and buried underneath the carpet. Until recently, most of the Global North published literature on the subject of the sexuality of disabled women has predominantly been constructed from hearsay and second-hand narratives in studies which draw from the perspectives of parents, service providers and advocates without much consultation of the relevant women. By facilitating the voice of disabled women in Zimbabwe and illuminating their experiences of sexuality, this book hopes to shift the experiences of sexuality of disabled women from the periphery of society to the fore. Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe presents original research on an issue that is thus far not found in local research data. Whilst addressing the paucity of literature on the subject, the book informs policy and practice and enhances the existing body of knowledge by making recommendations towards the development of a disability and sexuality framework that is rooted in the African context. This book is of interest to students and scholars of African studies disability studies sociology psychology social work nursing education studies geography women s and gender studies and interdisciplinary studies Additional audiences include a wide range of health social care and educational professionals and practitioners as well donors disabled people s organisations charities government departments NGOs supranational organisations and policy makers
