This textbook provides students across Social Sciences Humanities Politics and International Studies with an in depth understanding of the issues policies and strategies for addressing the symptoms and root causes of violence against women VAW in sub Saharan Africa This text uses the United Nations Security Council s Resolution 1325 UNSCR 1325 on Women Peace and Security in Eastern and Southern Africa as a framework to present the causes and impacts of VAW and to trace the journey of sub Saharan African countries toward gender equality It also provides an overview of the policy and legislative frameworks that underpin the progress challenges and achievements of addressing VAW based on four key pillars prevention protection participation and relief and recovery Chapters provide a wealth of knowledge as the book draws on academic literature national regional and international legislations and data collected from field research and makes use of end of chapter discussion questions and quick study guides Students will come away equipped with the tools resources and knowledge necessary to address and fix VAW in sub Saharan Africa and beyond Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,2013 New Armies from Old Roy Licklider,2014-04-15 Negotiating a peaceful end to civil wars which often includes an attempt to bring together former rival military or insurgent factions into a new national army has been a frequent goal of conflict resolution practitioners since the Cold War In practice however very little is known about what works and what doesn t work in bringing together former opponents to build a lasting peace Contributors to this volume assess why some civil wars result in successful military integration while others dissolve into further strife factionalism and even renewed civil war Eleven cases are studied in detail Sudan Zimbabwe Lebanon Rwanda the Philippines South Africa Mozambique Bosnia Herzegovina Sierra Leone Democratic Republic of the Congo and Burundi while other chapters compare military integration with corporate mergers and discuss some of the hidden costs and risks of merging military forces New Armies from Old fills a serious gap in our understanding of civil wars their possible resolution and how to promote lasting peace and will be of interest to scholars and students of conflict resolution international affairs and peace and security studies Leading under Duress Jean-Pierre Bongila, 2024-11-15 This comparative study of teacher attrition in the Global South and OECD countries examines the exceptionality of twenty selected learning leaders in the D R Congo Ghana and Uganda who have stayed in the teaching profession and led their student learning with devotion and integrity Like any learning leader exceptional teachers live the challenges and pressures that have caused some of their peers to leave the profession The extraordinary learning leaders from elementary secondary and higher education have stood victorious amid education devaluations and professional tensions The author gives voice to those exceptional teachers and analyzes the ethical rationale behind their unfailing commitment to their teaching vocation Their teaching philosophies and personal accounts revealed altruistic impulses This book further explores the exceptional teachers narratives and their selfless actions through the lens of philanthropic and leadership ethics theories Although the exceptional teachers altruism appears self sacrificing it embodies some form of self benefit because one can hardly fathom altruism for altruism s sake Nevertheless the twenty exceptional teachers acted in a self sacrificing manner The author appeals to the Global South countries to implement education policies that should redecorate the profession of learning leadership
