Quality in Higher Education as a Tool for Human Development Patience Mukwambo, 2019-04-11 Whilst many studies have explored how quality in higher education is conceptualised in the Global North less attention has been paid to quality in higher education in Africa and the Global South This book uses the human development and capabilities approach to demonstrate how quality in teaching and learning contributes to a range of benefits such as improved wellbeing economic outcomes political engagement and human capital formation amongst graduates The book interrogates the various dimensions of quality as well as factors that impact on the realisation of quality in universities and society at large Recognising that measures of quality are context and stakeholder specific the book uses the Zimbabwean context as a Global South case study It evaluates how quality is conceptualised and operationalised in Zimbabwean universities and how that impacts on teaching and learning policy and practice The book also demonstrates the need for economic resources for individuals and universities and emphasises the importance of a social and educational environment conducive to critical learning and post university opportunities This book will be of interest to researchers across Education African and Development Studies as well as to policymakers and practitioners with an interest in quality assurance and the promotion of teaching and learning in universities in the Global South The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda, 2016-11-10 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966 1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy

Mining Africa Warikandwa, Tapiwa V., 2017-05-01 This book is a pacesetter in matters of mining and the environment in Africa from multidisciplinary and spatio temporal perspectives The book approaches mining from the perspectives of law politics archaeology anthropology African studies geography human ecology sociology history economics and development It interrogates mining and environment from the perspectives of customary law as well as from the perspectives of Euro modern laws In this sense the book straddles precolonial colonial and postcolonial mining and environmental perspectives In all this it maintains a Pan Africanist perspective that also speaks to contemporary debates on African Renaissance and to the unity of Africa From scrutinising the lived realities of African miners who are often insensitively and unjustly addressed as illegal miners the book also interrogates transnational mining corporations matters of corporate social responsibility as well as matters of tax evasions by transnational corporations whose commitment to accountability to African governments is questioned With both theoretical chapters and chapter based on empirical studies on mining and the environment across the African continent the book provides a much needed holistic one stop shop for scholars activists researchers and policy makers who need a comprehensive treatise on African mining and the environment The book comes at the right time when matters of African mining and environment are increasingly coming to the fore in the light of discourses about the new 21st century scramble for African resources in which big transnational corporations and nations are jostling to suck Africa dry in their race to control planetary resources It is a book that speaks to contemporary broader issues of de coloniality and transformation of African minds and African environmental resources

Mubaya, 2017-08-09 For a long time African Studies as a discipline has been spearheaded by academics and institutions in the Global North This puts African Studies on the continent at a crossroads of making choices on whether such a discipline can be legitimately accepted as an epistemological discipline seeking objectivity and truth about Africa and the African peoples or a discipline meant to perpetuate the North's hegemonic socio economic political and epistemic control over Africa The compound question that immediately arises is Who should produce what and which space should African Studies occupy in the academy both of the North and of the South Confronted by such a question one wonders whether the existence of African Studies Centres in the Global North academics open opportunities for critical thinking on Africa or it opens possibilities for the emergence of the same discipline in Africa as a fertile space for trans disciplinary debate While approaches critical for the development of African Studies are pervasive in African universities through fields such as cultural studies social anthropology history sociology indigenous knowledge studies and African philosophy the discipline of African Studies though critical to Africa is rarely practised as such in the African academy and its future on the continent remains bleak African Studies in the Academy is a testimony that if honestly and objectively practised the crossroads position of African Studies as a discipline makes it a fertile ground for generating and testing new approaches critical for researching and understanding Africa It also challenges Africa to seriously consider assuming its legitimate position to champion African Studies from within These issues are at the heart of the present volume

Introduction to Gender Studies in Eastern and Southern Africa James Etim, 2016-07-28 Africa has witnessed massive changes in the last fifty years from independence through structural adjustment rule by military juntas in several countries and to a period now where the focus is on how best to prioritize their needs based on resources national goals and human potential There is general agreement that human capital is important in economic growth and development There is always the need to ensure that resources and human capital are used appropriately to advance development Gender disparities whether in treatment access to resources resource utilization and the law may in themselves retard or slow down development Resources and human potential in all societies include how best to ensure there is no gender disparity and to fully tap the resources inherent in women for personal social and national development Beginning with the women's suffrage movement there has been the push to encourage gender equality worldwide The Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing in 1995 embodies the commitment of the international community to implement policies that will enhance the political social economic educational empowerment of women This book highlights the issues affecting women in Eastern and Southern Africa what role does custom and patriarchy play in gender disparities in education access to health problems in the workplace and family relationships How have women writers in the last twenty years presented the issues of patriarchy women's rights globalism and women's holistic development What are recent developments that have helped improve the situation for some women These are some of the issues that are covered in this book The thesis of this book is that there have been policies and strategies developed that have worked to empower women However vestiges of sexism gender disparities in several fields still remain and traditions customs and patriarchy have aided in still keeping women down

Mugabeism after Mugabe? Duri, Fidelis Peter Thomas, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2019-10-22 Arguably one of the long waited political handover of power globally happened in November 2017 in Zimbabwe when the former and now late 37 year long serving and divisive President Robert Gabriel Mugabe was forced out of power by a combination of forces that were spearheaded by the military's Operation Restore Legacy Mugabe's departure ushered in President Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwa's reign This transition has variously been characterised as marking the inauguration of the Second Republic or New Dispensation or as heralding a new Zimbabwe that is Open for Business From the moment of the investiture of President Mnangagwa's government anticipations of seismic changes to the order of doing business by both the incoming government and the larger Zimbabwean society in general were extremely high There was an expectation that international cooperation with global partners especially in the West would be restored alongside the reinvigoration of a near comatose domestic economy But did this ever happen This volume interrogates the impact of the introduction of the Mnangagwa administration from November 2017 The book seeks to broadly dissect and troubleshoot issues of continuity and change from Mugabe's reign into Mnangagwa's Second Republic. In doing so, the book attempts to respond to the grand question: To what extent has Mugabeism, that was the hallmark of Mugabe's reign, continued or discontinued into the Second Republic? The volume, which comes as a sequel to The end of an era: Robert Mugabe and a conflicting legacy, is sure to generate interest and responses from students and academics in the fields of History, International Studies, Political Science, Sociology, and Social anthropology, as well as from practitioners in the human rights, transitional justice, conflict resolution, security studies, and diplomatic fields.

Citizen and Pariah Vanya Gastrow, 2022-03. Hoping for a better life, many migrants have made the journey to South Africa and set up as informal spaza shop traders in small towns and township areas, supplying the local residents with essentials. These traders work hard, open their shops early, close late, and support their relatives and kinspeople in starting new businesses. But thriving in environments afflicted by unemployment and crime is almost impossible when armed.

robberies are a daily reality protection from law enforcement is not a given and access to justice is effectively out of reach Engaging first hand with small traders and the Somali communities in Khayelitsha Kraaifontein and Philippi Vanya Gastrow investigates the predicament of these modernday pariahs social and political outcasts who belong neither to the elite nor the common people and who are frequently the focus of xenophobic anger Tracing national level regulatory developments in post apartheid democratic South Africa Gastrow shines a light on how retailers have been politicised and how they have faced growing informal and formal regulatory efforts to curtail their business activities She demonstrates how democratic and constitutional frameworks can erode in contexts of heightened nationalism populism and economic inequality By investigating Somali informal shopkeepers experiences of crime justice and regulation in the country the fragility of law pluralism and democracy in South Africa is uncomfortably exposed
