Marginality, Migration and Education Winniefridah Matsa, 2020-12-21 This book provides a missing link between marginality migration and education in Zimbabwe focusing on the educational experiences of migrants children in an effort to influence government policies concerning migrant parents and their left behind children While there is a large body of knowledge on the education of children of immigrants in destination countries this book aims to fill in the gap by addressing the children who do not migrate with their parents Through this unique approach the book examines the education statuses of these left behind children offering insights into their educational challenges rights and inequities to better inform policy decisions to meet the 2030 education agenda for action established by the United Nations in 2015 The book will of interest and use to governments NGOs teachers and local communities in Africa as a resource to better understand the situation of migrants left behind children as a category of vulnerable children in difficult circumstances

Zimbabwe Journal of Educational Research, 2005 Refugee Learner Experiences. A Case Study of Zimbabwean Refugee Children Lawrence Meda, 2017-06-27 This study is a presentation of Zimbabwean refugee learner experiences Children escaped political persecution and economic problems which affected Zimbabwe in the year 2008 Many of these children were abused and witnessed traumatic experiences their close relatives and neighbours being executed in cold blood This study was guided by three critical questions i who are the Zimbabwean refugee learners ii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners migration experiences and iii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners school experiences The study employed Bronfenbrenner s Social Ecological Model as its overarching theoretical framework Each stage of the refugee experience was described at each point in time Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education Wisdom, Sherrie,Leavitt, Lynda,Bice, Cynthia,2019-06-28 In comparing one public school to another discussions frequently include talk concerning the socioeconomics of a school or district which then leads to talk about the advantages that one socioeconomic setting has over another Educators tend to agree that low academic achievement frequently associated with a low socioeconomic status is a characteristic difficult to resolve for a population of school children The Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education is a critical reference source that provides insights into social influences on school and educational settings Featuring an array of topics including online learning social mobility and teacher preparation this book is excellent for educational leaders educational researchers teachers academicians administrators instructional designers and teacher preparation programs State Fragility and State Building in Africa Dele Olowu,Paulos Chanie,2015-10-19 This book describes the contrast between the strong economic growth and democratization that have occurred in Africa and its stalling political progress It presents and discusses fragility as the phenomenon that has caused the state to remain weak and faltering and has led to at least one third of the continent s citizens living in fragile states Following the examination of the drivers of fragility and the impact of fragility on citizens and neighbouring states the book discusses capacity building approaches This part shows how effective states can be built on the African continent a process that would result in a change from state fragility to state resilience It is based on lessons learnt from close studies of the nations where the state has been most developed in the region in Eastern and Southern Africa The book provides and responds to the most recent and up to date information on African development and uses insights of people who have lived and worked in the continent for most of their lives Sociology A-Level (ZIMSEC) Past Exam Questions and Model Answers David Chitate ,2024-06-06 This book contains the most comprehensive question bank and model answers for ZIMSEC A Level exam questions It also includes syllabus review notes and exercises Examiners provide observations and tips and point out common errors that students make when answering questions If you use this book faithfully you can t fail and the Grade A is very much within your reach imwe imba - the other room Munashe Wadzanai,Anne Schlechters,Thomas F. Andersson,2022-11-01 Munashe is a bright adolescent girl living in Zimbabwe She feels a pressure to leave Zimbabwe and to follow most of her peers to a university or to work in the West However she is not convinced that this is what she really wants Via Thomas an experienced European scientist and manager initiating a technical Start up Hub at her boarding school Munashe comes in contact with Anne Imwe imba the other room is a novel covering the last 2 high school years of Munashe and Anne in letters between the young women as well as from Thomas to Simon his now retired personal and business coach Through the letters Anne and

Simon discover unknown and fascinating aspects of the southern African society Especially since Thomas includes stories from Nelson Munashe s grandfather and small holder farmer Based on the stories and hearing about Munashe s activities in more technical projects Anne develops a critical attitude towards both the current Western school system and the effectiveness of traditional Western development or aid projects On the other side Munashe learns that Europe is not the land of milk and honey for everybody Munashe and Anne assisted by Thomas review the so called development work activities in emerging markets and propose a promising approach to economically uplift more rural areas In part 2 the Start up Hub activities are proven to be sustainable and Munashe asks where do we want to go A design is made for a more ideal global society and the issues faced implementing their ideas are discussed The letters in this novel cover a wide spectrum of topics personal struggles and contemplations educational and business practices science and art geopolitics and historical backgrounds change management as well as social developments Each letter is written in an accessible language and underlined with references to allow the reader to explore more Most of all imwe imba wants to create awareness Awareness for the wonderful real life in Africa Awareness that Africa is prosperity Awareness that our younger generation is perfectly able to initiate change That a single person can initiate change That complaining or being upset about various unacceptable global happenings or actions is not enough That a further polarisation and blaming the others doesn t help That we have to do things That we should not fear change but embrace the changes that are needed to come to the necessary improvements

Towards Inclusive Education in Zimbabwe Tsedisio Michael Makoele,Tsitsi Chataika,2025-02-24 This book aims to provide a comprehensive review of the state of inclusive education in Zimbabwe since the adoption of the philosophy in 1994 While literature exists that accounts for the situation regarding special and inclusive education in Zimbabwe there is a need for a more thorough and complete understanding of the state of inclusive education in the country This book explores and reflects on the perspectives of various stakeholders within the Zimbabwean education system It offers a conceptual understanding of the implementation of inclusive education in a postcolonial and politically troubled Zimbabwe and provides recommendations for policy development and formulation as well as the development and strengthening of inclusive teaching and learning practices The insights offered in this book could have a significant impact on clarifying the roles of stakeholders and ensuring that education provision leads to student support that addresses the needs of all students in Zimbabwe Regime and Education in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube,Albert Mufanechiya,2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post independence educational development in Zimbabwe It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers poor salaries student activism minority languages and curriculum innovations This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda Consequently this has resulted in a nation in crisis marked with high turnover poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy Pursuit of the Elusive Dream Lawrence D Moyo,2023-05-16 Anyone interested in the history of Zimbabwe will love this memoir by Lawrence D Moyo It traces the tumultuous events of the First Chimurenga of 1896 through independence from Great Britain in 1980 until the present day He vividly describes his childhood struggles as the son of a father who abuses his children as slave labourers Lawrence progressively climbs the educational ladder until he emigrates to the UK with his family Harping on the theme of hidden racism among others Lawrence then endures horrific racist treatment from criminally disobedient white and black students in schools he works at as an English teacher Having become a highly respected educational specialist he is now retired in the UK retaining his connections with his family members and friends in Zimbabwe The State, Ideology, and Education Rugano Jonas Zvobgo,1997 Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou,Theodore Zervas,2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy
