Teaching African History in Schools , 2020-11-04 Emerging from the pioneering work of the African Association for History Education AHE Afrika Teaching African History in Schools offers an original Africa centred contribution to international history education research Edited by AHE Afrika s founders and directors the volume thus addresses a notable gap in this field by showcasing otherwise marginalised scholarship from and about Africa Teaching African History in Schools constitutes a unique collection of nine empirical studies interrogating curriculum and textbook contents and teachers and learners voices and experiences as they relate to teaching and learning African history across the continent and beyond Case studies include South Africa Kenya Rwanda Zimbabwe Malawi Cameroon and Tanzania as well as the UK and Canada Contributors are Denise Bentrovato Carol Bertram Jean Leonard Buhigiro Annie Fatsereni Chiponda Raymond Nkweni Fru Marshall Tamuka Maposa Abdul Mohamud Sabrina Moisan Reville Nussey Nancy Rushohora Johan Wassermann and Robin Whitburn Inequality and Political Cleavage in Africa Catherine Boone,2024-04-25 Extensive data maps and case histories show how competition between rich and poor regions drives African politics not ethnic diversity

New Urban Agenda in Zimbabwe Charles Chavunduka, Innocent Chirisa, 2024-06-23 This book presents ways of shaping the built environment sciences and practices for steering the New Urban Agenda in Zimbabwe Attention to the built environment disciplines and practice is important because of their centrality to economic dynamism and sustainability of urban services The reverse relationship is also true because through provision of norms aspirations and guidelines the New Urban Agenda helps in steering the built environment disciplines and practice The book begins by exploring theoretical and conceptual material on the built environment concept It recognizes that sub Saharan African countries and Zimbabwe in particular are operating in a changing environment of rapid urbanization unemployment and inequality Its premise is that the built environment sciences and practice can make a contribution to addressing sustainable development challenges through the introduction of innovations in infrastructure institutions and processes that enhance socio economic growth and development The book brings together scholarship from various disciplines in the built environment and presents sector initiatives such as those relating to curricula smart technologies and cutting edge innovations in steering sustainable urban development

Integral Green Zimbabwe Elizabeth Mamukwa, Ronnie Lessem, Alexander Schieffer, 2016-05-23 Integral Green Zimbabwe An African Phoenix Rising by Ronnie Lessem Alexander Schieffer and Liz Mamukwa is the first book in the Integral Green Society and Economy series a series which has three overarching aims The first aim is to link together two major movements of our time one philosophical the other practical The philosophical movement is towards what many today are calling an integral age while the practical is the green movement duly aligned with that of sustainable development The second is to blend together elements of nature and community culture and spirituality science and technology politics and economics thus serving to bring about an integral green vision albeit with a focus on business and economics As such the authors transcend the limitations to sustainable development and environmental economics which are overly ecological if not also technological in orientation and exclude social and cultural elements Thirdly this particular volume focuses specifically on Zimbabwe as well as Southern Africa drawing on the particular issues and capacities that this country and region represents The emphasis on Zimbabwe and Southern Africa transpired not only because two of the editors Lessem and Mamukwa are Zimbabwean in origin but because Zimbabwe is today like a phoenix rising from the ashes and has the opportunity to recreate itself anew Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga,

Ndwakhulu,2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change As a result student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape Individually and through the student councils students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship Through student activism and citizenship students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education s decision making processes Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth Campus Student Activism Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives academia public private and civil society sectors It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers New Millennium Woes and Livelihood Struggles in Africa Peter Thomas,Ngonidzashe Marongwe,2021-05-19 One of the oldest survival pursuits undertaken by the weak and the downtrodden people across the world has been begging Going back to the ancient Christian biblical times up to the present epoch as well as across varying spatial settings in situations of trouble and tribulations parts of various communities have resorted to beggary to either overcome immediate adversities or longer term calamities Drawing on insights from two polar theoretical lenses of Social Constructionism and Social Deconstructionism and guided by a pithy study of the begging across the African continent especially by Zimbabweans this book troubles the various contours related to the subject of begging Inter alia the book considers the concept of begging the causes of the prevalence of begging across the world and particularly among Zimbabweans the challenges and benefits associated with the pursuit of alms the impact of begging in foreign lands as well as some of the strategies that beggars employ to maximize their collections and or profits What can be discerned from the book is that for many begging is one of the last resort undertakings with low pickings However from a utilitarian perspective begging has helped to sustain the impoverished livelihoods of Zimbabweans both inside and outside the borders of the country since the advent of a debilitating crisis experienced from the turn of the new millennium On the whole this book seeks to provoke further researches on an important socio economic area that affects many African communities but has so far been scantily researched The book is handy for students and practitioners in economic history African studies economics risk and disaster management social anthropology political science and development studies In Pursuit of an African Green Revolution Keiji Otsuka,Donald F. Larson,2015-11-24 This book explores recent experiences in the effort to bring about a Green Revolution in Sub Saharan Africa SSA The chapters focus on rice and maize which are promising and strategic smallholder crops Significantly we find that an African Rice Revolution has already begun in many irrigated areas using Asian type modern varieties chemical fertilizer and improved management practices Further we find that the same technological package significantly increases the productivity and profitability of rice farming in rainfed areas as well We also find evidence that that management training when done well can boost productivity on smallholder farms This suggests that African governments can accelerate the pace of Africa s Rice Revolution by strengthening extension capacity The story for maize is wholly different where most farmers use local varieties apply little chemical fertilizer and obtain very low yields However in the highly populated highlands of Kenya a number of farmers have adopted high yielding hybrid maize varieties and chemical fertilizer as was the case in the Asian Green Revolution apply manure produced by stall fed cows as was the case during the British Agricultural Revolution and keep improved cows or cross breeds from European cows and local stock as was the case of the Indian White Revolution We conclude that while rice in Africa has benefited from an Asian Green Revolution strategy that emphasizes modern seeds inputs and focused knowledge transfers the success of Africa s Maize Revolution will require a different system approach based on hybrid maize chemical and organic fertilizers and stall fed cross bred cows

Plantation Life Tania Murray Li,Pujo Semedi,2021-09-27 In Plantation Life Tania Murray Li and Pujo Semedi examine the structure and governance of Indonesia s contemporary oil palm plantations in Indonesia which supply 50 percent of the world s palm oil They attend to the exploitative nature of plantation life wherein villagers well being is sacrificed in the name of economic development While plantations are often plagued by ruined ecologies injury among workers and a devastating loss of livelihoods for former landholders small scale independent farmers produce palm oil more efficiently and with far less damage to life and land Li and Semedi theorize corporate occupation to underscore how massive forms of capitalist production and control over the palm oil industry replicate colonial style relations that undermine citizenship In so doing they question the assumption that corporations are necessary for rural development contending that the dominance of plantations stems from a political system that privileges corporations

Reimagining God and Resacralisation Alexa Blonner, 2019-05-14 This book shows that widespread resacralisation has been taking place which is producing new ways of perceiving God and the divine The last century has seen unmistakable changes in religious practices and the concept of spirituality right across the world There was a broad expectation for much of the twentieth century that religious worldviews would eventually succumb to the challenge of secularist materialism but this process of secularisation has yet to occur as predicted The book begins by contrasting theories of secularisation and resacralisation Throughout the book conceptual threads or new religious themes related to this resacralisation are discussed in terms of three main categories reimagining God's nature substance and location reimagining human value and purpose and reimagining modes of redemption Finally the book considers how these threads are moving in various different directions and what the religious future might hold This is a bold examination of contemporary spirituality that will appeal to academics and scholars of religious studies new religious movements and the sociology of religion

The impact of agricultural extension services in the context of a heavily subsidized input system Ragasa, Catherine, Mazunda, John, Kadzamira, Mariam, 2016-01-08 This paper aims to test this hypothesis and to contribute to better understanding of strategies to revitalize the agricultural extension system in Malawi Specifically it examines the interplay between the fertilizer subsidy and access to extension services and their impact on farm productivity and food security in Malawi Results show that the fertilizer subsidy has inconsistent impact on farm productivity and food security at the same time access to agricultural advice was consistently insignificant in explaining farm productivity and food security Further analysis however shows that when access to extension services is unpacked to include indicators of usefulness and farmers satisfaction these indicators were statistically significant Households who reported that they received very useful agricultural advice had greater productivity and greater food security than those who reported receiving advice that they considered not useful This result implies the need to ensure the provision of relevant and useful agricultural advice to increase the likelihood of achieving agricultural development outcomes

Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it Towards Gender Equity in Development Siwan Anderson,Lori Beaman,Jean-Philippe

Platteau,2018-10-22 As a result of widespread mistreatment and overt discrimination women in the developing world often lack autonomy Towards Gender Equity in Development brings together leading scholars working on gender issues to explore key sources of female empowerment and discuss the current challenges and opportunities for the future Exploring three key domains this book adopts a clear multi disciplinary approach to present different perspectives from gender focused economics and social research It covers marriage and women s relative bargaining position within the household the options available to women outside of marriage and in the context of their community and overarching discriminatory laws and cultural norms It engages with questions of how marriage divorce and remarriage practices have evolved and with what effects for women how female empowerment can benefit from improving options and economic and collective action opportunities and how the government can act as a lawmaker to contribute to modifying norms and practices that disadvantage women Historical Dictionary of Mozambique Colin Darch,2018-12-15 The new edition of Historical Dictionary of Mozambique covers the Bantu expansion the arrival of the Portuguese navigators and their str competition with local African power centers and coastal Arab Swahili trading towns the trade cycles of gold ivory and slaves the establishment of the semi Africanized prazos along the Zambezi Valley pacification campaigns and the period of Portuguese weakness in the late 19th and early 20th centuries when vast tracts of land were rented to concessionary companies In the late colonial period the Salazar dictatorship tried to reassert Portuguese power but after ten years of armed struggle for national liberation Mozambique gained its independence in 1975 The book contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Mozambique Crony Capitalism in the Middle East Ishac Diwan, Adeel Malik, Izak Atiyas, 2019-05-23 The popular uprisings in 2011 that overthrew Arab dictators were also a rebuke to crony capitalism diverted against both rulers and their allied businessmen who monopolize all economic opportunities While the Middle East has witnessed a growing nexus between business and politics in the wake of liberalization little is discussed about the nature of business cronies the sectors in which they operate the mechanisms used to favour them and the possible impact of such crony relations on the region's development Combining inputs from leading scholars in the field Crony Capitalism in the Middle East Business and Politics from Liberalization to the Arab Spring presents a wealth of empirical evidence on the form and function of this aspect of the region Crony Capitalism in the Middle East is unique in both its empirical focus and comparative scale Analysis in individual chapters is empirically grounded and based on fine grained data on the business activities of politically connected actors furnishing for the first time information on the presence numerical strength and activities of politically connected entrepreneurs It also substantially enhances our understanding of the mechanisms used to privilege connected businesses and their possible impact on undermining the growth of firms in the region It offers a major advance on our prior knowledge of Middle Eastern political economy and constitutes a distinct contribution to the global literature on crony capitalism and the politics of development The book will be an essential resource for students researchers and policymakers alike
