Science Education in Context Richard K. Coll, Neil Taylor, 2019-02-18 This book presents an international perspective of the influence of educational context on science education. The focus is on the interactions between curriculum development and implementation particularly in non-Western and non-English speaking contexts i.e. outside the UK, USA, Australia, NZ etc. An important and distinguishing feature of the book is that it draws upon the experiences and research from local experts from an extremely diverse cohort across the world, 26 countries in total. The book addresses topics such as curriculum development, research or evaluation of an implemented curriculum, discussion of pressures driving curriculum reform or implementation of new curricula e.g. technology or environmental education, the influence of political, cultural, societal or religious mores on education, governmental or ministerial drives for curriculum reform, economic or other pressures driving curriculum reform, the influence of external assessment regimes on curriculum and so on. Resources in Education, 1998. Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States. Historical Outlook, 1922. Swaziland: Contemporary Social and Economic Issues Peter G. Forster, Bongani J. Nsibandwe, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000. Up-to-date information on socio-economic issues in contemporary Swaziland is not always readily accessible. This work fills that gap by including contributions by Swazi scholars based on recent research. Swaziland is of particular interest because of its culture and development, the special characteristics of small states and regional development in Southern Africa. Swaziland faces some problems found generally in developing areas but others are distinctive. The cultural dimension to development is paid close attention throughout.
