Beyond the Skills Gap Matthew T. Hora, 2019-01-02 2018 Frederic W Ness Book Award AAC U How can educators ensure that young people who attain a postsecondary credential are adequately prepared for the future Matthew T Hora and his colleagues explain that the answer is not simply that students need more specialized technical training to meet narrowly defined employment opportunities Beyond the Skills Gap challenges this conception of the skills gap highlighting instead the value of broader twenty first century skills in postsecondary education They advocate for a system in which employers share responsibility along with the education sector to serve the collective needs of the economy society and students Drawing on interviews with educators in two and four year institutions and employers in the manufacturing and biotechnology sectors the authors demonstrate the critical importance of habits of mind such as problem solving teamwork and communication They go on to show how faculty and program administrators can create active learning experiences that develop students skills across a range of domains The book includes in depth descriptions of eight educators whose classrooms exemplify the effort to blend technical learning with the cultivation of twenty first century habits of mind The study set in Wisconsin takes place against the backdrop of heated political debates over the role of public higher education This thoughtful and nuanced account enriched by keen observations of postsecondary instructional practice promises to contribute new insights to the rich literature on workforce development and to provide valuable guidance for postsecondary faculty and administrators

Criticism and Truth Jonathan Kramnick, 2023-12-04 A defense and celebration of the discipline of literary studies and its most distinctive practice close reading Does literary criticism offer truths about the world In Criticism and Truth Jonathan Kramnick offers a new and surprising account of criticism's power by zeroing in on its singular method close reading Long recognized as the distinctive technique of literary studies close reading is the critic's way of pursuing arguments and advancing knowledge as well as the primary skill taught in the English major But it is also more than that a creative immersive and transformative writing practice that fosters a unique kind of engagement with the world Drawing on the rich and varied landscape of contemporary criticism Kramnick changes how we think about the basic tools of literary analysis including the art of in text quotation summary and other reading methods helping us to see them as an invaluable form of humanistic expertise Criticism and Truth is a call to arms making a powerful case for the necessity of both literature and criticism within a multidisciplinary university As the humanities fight for survival in contemporary higher education the study of literature doesn't need more plans for reform Rather it needs a defense of the work already being done and an account of why it should flourish This is what Criticism and Truth offers in vivid and portable form
