

Summary

I'll be summarizing the short story from Paul Mechanics by Raymond Carver. The story depicts the issues surrounding divorce and the consequences that come with this action.

The author started by describing how the season changed where it's getting darker and at the point the snow is getting melted. A scene where a man is quickly tucking his garments into the box he carries around. The woman was relieved when she made her way to the bedroom realizing that he was stepping out but somehow upset that he even had the slightest idea of leaving. She cried after saying out loud "Son of a bitch! I am so glad you are leaving! (Carver, n.d).

As he was done packing his clothes, he headed towards the kitchen doorway where he met the woman carrying the baby. He stretched to take the baby from her but she blatantly refused him from doing that. He tried again but this time she moved closer to the stove in the kitchen, at this point the baby was already crying. He successfully grabbed the baby away from her tight grip. The man put him under his arm but the woman couldn't let go completely as she held on the baby's other arm and wrist tightly. The man held on to the baby and was not willing to let go. The story came to an end. "In this manner, the issue was decided." (Carver,n.d)

Though the story is interesting, I'm not comfortable with the fact that the baby had to go through that with the whole back and forth they exhibited. The baby was clearly helpless and I'm out here wondering what would have happened if he fell. The decision should be made without having to hurt anyone in the process.

The Durrells Richard Bradford, 2025-06-05 A variously tragic tale of escapism and assimilation Richard Bradford s The Durrells explores the truth behind the image The Durrells are probably the most celebrated literary family of the 20th century Gerald turned them into celebrities with his tripartite memoir beginning with My Family and Other Animals 1956 which told of his experiences with his widowed mother Louisa and three siblings during their time in 1930s Corfu We know of the Durrells from their own writings and from the image of them created by TV film and biographical accounts of specific figures What we do not know is the truth Using previously unpublished material from the Jersey Archive Richard Bradford unravels the lives of the famous four children of the Corfu era Larry Gerry Margo and Lesli as they find themselves geographically and emotionally divided amongst a backdrop of imperial decline and unrest The children of moneyed colonialists they were already used to being treated with aghast fascination by the island s locals and by expatriate Britons as a disgrace to the homeland Yet their story goes beyond the Ionian Sea and The Durrells delves into the complex social and political circumstances in which the family lived with seemingly constant threats of war and endangerment to both themselves and their natural environment
