Lexicography at a Crossroads Henning Bergenholtz, Sandro Nielsen, Sven Tarp, 2009 This book contains a collection of original research articles on lexicography written by prominent international scholars within the field It aims at describing the state of the art in lexicography at the beginning of the 21st century and at making proposals for future theoretical and practical work in the field Theoretical lexicography currently has two competing theories a contemplative theory focusing on the description of existing dictionaries on the basis of linguistic principles and a function based transformative theory focusing on the dictionary and the user in order to develop new principles for dictionary research and dictionary making Research in lexicography has now reached a crossroads and it is time to take stock of the present situation and try to identify the theories and principles that will set the agenda and point the direction for future lexicographic research and the production of printed and electronic dictionaries

Open Architecture Curricular Design in World Language Education Andrew R. Corin, Betty Lou Leaver, Christine M. Campbell, 2025-07-01 A guide to a textbook free approach to world languages curriculums that will improve learning outcomes Open architecture curricular design OACD is a textbook free curricular design framework for teaching and learning world languages that integrates all the best practices in world language education to enhance learning efficiency and effectiveness As editors and pioneers of this method Corin Leaver and Campbell define OACD for world language instructors and second language acquisition researchers from middle school through higher education and beyond The book's chapters demonstrate how to use OACD for a wide variety of languages and proficiency levels in government service academy and university programs Topics covered include the use of authentic texts at all levels learner involvement in the selection of content and activities and methods of assessment and program evaluation

Codes of Corruption Karin Zotzmann, 2025-03-31 Corruption is expanding internationally and so are strategic accusations of others being corrupt It has become quite common for some politicians and their supporters to make false accusations of corruption against opponents in order to win power A precise understanding of the phenomenon is therefore urgently needed for economic and political governance The phenomenon has so far been investigated from the disciplines of sociology criminology politics and economics but rarely with a focus on the actual negotiation of corrupt deals This is mainly because access to these illegal often discursively mediated practices is highly complicated Empirical studies have therefore either focused quantitatively on the number of cases that came to light or on perceptions of and attitudes towards the phenomenon Codes of Corruption attempts to fill this gap It draws on a corpus of videos and audio recordings from Mexico secretly recorded by individuals who were present at the time and later uploaded to a public streaming platform This corpus was analyzed through a variety of analytical tools to show the interactional and discursive work participants engage in to come to an agreement and at the same time the structural configurations that enabled constrained and motivated the participants To capture these multidimensional causal configurations and avoid the pitfalls of reductionism the theoretical and methodological framework adopted in this research is based on the philosophy of Critical Realism Through this innovative approach the book aims to contribute to debates and emerging research agendas in the study of corruption and thus to further the conceptualization of the phenomenon its causes and potential remedies Its results will be of interest to researchers in the above mentioned disciplines as well as to those working in Critical Discourse Analysis Critical Realism Interactional Sociolinguistics and Pragmatics Codes of Corruption will also be of interest to a wider audience of governmental and non governmental institutions that engage in the design of anti corruption strategies training and education

The Quarterly Journal of the Geological Society of London ,1848      Quarterly Journal of the Geological Society of London ,1848      The Alpine Journal ,1923      The Academy and Literature ,1891      The Life and Epistles of St. Paul William John Conybeare,John Saul Howson,1852      The Civil engineer & [and] architect's journal ,1852      The Law and Politics of the Kosovo Advisory Opinion Marko Milanovic,Michael Charles Wood,2015 This volume is an edited collection of essays on various aspects of the 2010 Kosovo Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice The main theme of the book is the interplay between law and politics regarding Kosovo s independence generally and the advisory opinion specifically How and why did the Court become the battleground in which Kosovo s independence was to be fought out or not How and why did political arguments in favour of Kosovo s independence e g that Kosovo was a unique sui generis case which set no precedent for other secessionist territories change in the formal legal setting of advisory proceedings before the Court How and why did states supporting either Kosovo or Serbia choose to frame their arguments How did the Court perceive them What did the Court want to achieve and did it succeed in doing so And how was the opinion received and what broader implications did it have so far These are the questions that the book hopes to shed some light on To do so the editors assembled a stellar cast of contributors many of whom acted as counsel or advisors in the case as well a number of eminent scholars of politics and international relations whose pieces further enrich the book and give it an interdisciplinary angle The book thus tells the story of the case places it within its broader political context and so attempts to advance our understanding of how such cases are initiated litigated and decided and what broader purposes they may or may not serve

Society is undergoing change and as a result social welfare services including social work are being transformed This book explores the sociological basis of contemporary society and shows how social workers experience tensions and contradictions in practice The book uses case studies and self directed activities to enable students to relate sociology to daily lives It explores key themes in turn examining their relevance for social work and how they can be applied to practice particularly in areas such as children and families mental health disability and older people Relevant and accessible the authors explore aspects of class ethnicity and gender and conclude with suggestions of how sociology can inform practice and enable social work to engage with processes of transformation The book provides essential material for students of social work and social care at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels It will also be relevant to social policy and sociology undergraduates

Bandung Revisited See Seng Tan,Amitav Acharya,2008 The 1955 Asian African conference the Bandung Conference was a meeting of 29 Asian and African nations that sought to draw on Asian and African nationalism and religious traditions to forge a new international order that was neither communist nor capitalist It led six years later to the non aligned movement Few would dispute the notion that the inaugural meeting in 1955 was a watershed in international history but there is much disagreement about its long term legacy and its significance for present day international affairs Determining the what why and how of this monumental event remains a challenge for students of the Conference and of Third World international politics Was it a post colonial ideological reaction to the passing of the age of empire or an innovative effort to promote a new regionalism based on mutual goodwill and strong regional ties Were its principles of peaceful coexistence a rhetorical flourish or a substantive policy initiative Did the Conference help define North South relations And in what way did the Conference contribute to the regional order of contemporary Asia Back cover
