Race and Restoration Barclay Key,2020-05-06 From the late nineteenth century to the dawn of the civil rights era the Churches of Christ operated outside of conventional racial customs Many of their congregations even deep in the South counted whites and blacks among their numbers As the civil rights movement began to challenge pervasive social views about race Church of Christ leaders and congregants found themselves in the midst of turmoil In Race and Restoration Churches of Christ and the Black Freedom Struggle Barclay Key focuses on how these churches managed race relations during the Jim Crow era and how they adapted to the dramatic changes of the 1960s Although most religious organizations grappled with changing attitudes toward race the Churches of Christ had singular struggles Fundamentally restorationist these exclusionary churches perceived themselves as the only authentic expression of Christianity compelling them to embrace peoples of different races even as they succumbed to prevailing racial attitudes The Churches of Christ thus offer a unique perspective for observing how Christian fellowship and human equality intersected during the civil rights era Key reveals how racial attitudes and practices within individual congregations elude the simple categorizations often employed by historians Public forums designed by churches to bridge racial divides offered insight into the minds of members while revealing the limited progress made by individual churches Although the Churches of Christ did have a more racially diverse composition than many other denominations in the Jim Crow era Key shows that their members were subject to many of the same aversions prejudices and fears of other churches of the time Ironically the tentative biracial relationships that had formed within and between congregations prior to World War II began to dissolve as leading voices of the civil rights movement prioritized desegregation

Captivators for Christ R.C. Milco,2019-04-02 The impossibility of forgiving another as we have been forgiven was intended to drive us to our knees When our lives are shredded in the proclamation of Him who pardoned the undeserving we are propelled into the only Refuge we have the Redeemer who bought us back from the dead and now enables us to serve in His style of ministry From where do our reserves come when expenditures are daunting Where do we find strength to persevere And how are we to not lose heart when longing to see others captivated by the Lord s love we fail to witness any fruitfulness in the long suffering Through the Biblical meditations offered in Captivators for Christ the reader is invited to contemplate the cross where all of the forfeitures and losses of extending forgiveness are eclipsed by the lavish and matchless love of God our Rescuer

This volume presents a tapestry of narratives in which the lived experiences of eight racially minoritized theologians and biblical scholars are woven together to present an interdisciplinary exploration of the direct impact that ethnocultural traditions have in shaping the way people read and interpret the biblical text. Moving beyond traditional approaches to biblical hermeneutics steeped in Euro-normativity, Canadian scholars from Latino, a Chinese, Korean, Indian, Cree, and AfriCaribbean backgrounds draw on their respective locations to articulate how their communities engage the Bible. Together they show that ethnicity and cultural tradition enrich how different communities weave their life stories with the biblical text in hope of finding wisdom within it. By focusing on questions rooted in their particular traditions, these diverse hermeneutical engagements show narrative to be central to the interpretive task within diverse ethnocultural communities. Women in Christian Traditions Rebecca Moore, 2015-03-06. Description of the roles women have played in the construction and practice of Christian traditions from the earliest disciples to the latest theologians. Touching the Bones of Elisha Albert Haase, Phil Vestal, 2023-04-28. In this book, Franciscan priest Fr. Albert Haase, OFM, and Protestant pastor Phil Vestal bring to life nine spiritual practices from the life and ministry of the ancient Hebrew prophet Elisha, practices later promoted by Jesus, Paul, and subsequent figures in the history of Christian spirituality. These spiritual practices point directly to important themes in spiritual formation: The call of God, Healing, Perseverance in the face of opposition, Gratitude and charity, Prayer, petition and intercession, The tension between obedience to the law and Jesus' command to love, Living with the awareness of God's investment in every human endeavor, God's ever-present grace and protection in the face of trials and tribulations, Mercy. Based upon incidents in the life of an ancient prophet, these nine practices are life-giving bones that God uses to instill new spirit and creativity in the contemporary believer. Handbook of African Development Tony Binns, Kenneth Lynch, Etienne Nel, 2018-04-27. At-Home Seminary Rich O'Brien, 2025-07-15 My goal upon entering Moody's MABS program was then as it is now to know God better and to love Him more Before completing the program I began praying to know what God had in mind for me next While praying I realized that some if not much of the biblical knowledge I had recently gained would likely slip from my mind if I did not take steps to prevent that I was then led to compile my written assignments into a well organized anthology As I prayerfully worked on that project I realized that the finished product could well serve as a Christian discipleship or small group study That led me to prayerfully consider making the project available to everyone Now along with WestBow Press I am blessed to invite you to embark on a journey through your own At Home Seminary

Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2016-05-23 Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post 9 11 Age of Terror Naydan suggests that after 9 11 fiction by Mohsin Hamid Laila Halaby Philip Roth Don DeLillo John Updike and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists between liberals and certain evangelicals between fundamentalists and artists and between fundamentalists of different varieties Ultimately Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism atheism faith fundamentalism and fanaticism In so doing they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9 11

Rethinking Jonah Thomas J. Belke, 2025-06-30 Was the Hebrew prophet Jonah a real or fictional person If real when did he live Who were his contemporaries Where did he grow up How long did he live What was he like Is the biblical book truth or fiction Can we know more about him than the forty eight verse account in the biblical book of Jonah one verse in 2 Kings and three short New Testament references To what extent are contemporary assessments of him as being the runaway prophet accurate And what really happened at Nineveh and in the aftermath This study uses an inference engine based approach and ancient sources to reconstruct and better understand what is arguably the second greatest story ever told Rethinking Jonah is subdivided into four volumes that build on each other as follows Volume 1 Convergence This first volume launches into the inference based historical reconstruction resulting in convergence on the ninth century BC timeframe Scribes scrolls cliffs caves and skulls prepare to be amazed Volume 2 The Boy Prophet This second volume reveals that Jonah is hidden in plain sight in 2 Kings and reconstructs the first part of his life from his miraculous birth in the spring of 850 BC to his first resurrection in 849 BC to him drowning to death at sea in 826 BC Volume 3 Two Scrolls Not One This third volume picks up with Jonah's second resurrection in 826 BC reveals that Jonah was originally published as two scrolls not one explains why Nineveh repented in 824 BC and reconstructs Jonah's third resurrection in 799 BC Volume 4 Mysteries Unveiled This fourth volume synthesizes the entire historical reconstruction including an in depth look at the sign of Jonah and the Jonah Israel super sign typology that Jonah's life is a typological map of the history of Israel past present and future
