Wild Races Lalruatkima, 2024-01-05 This book analyzes the narrative dynamics of social formations in British India using statistical and ethnographic records visual cultures and linguistic exercises to describe the British Empire's production of knowledge about so called strange new worlds Lalruatkima then labels these narrative dynamics as scripturalizing to account for the creation or writing of these worlds into existence This focus underscores empire as one of many such formations imagined against the backdrop of contested conversations about what it is and what it could be When reverse engineered empire throws into sharp relief its constituent narrative placeholders and the sequences of meaning making that connect them Power differentials between the imperial center and frontier determine the placeholders and how they fit into the larger narrative These discursive components in turn engender the politically charged attitudes and relations within the imperial domain Lalruatkima excavates the imperial archive for material that accounts for these narrative dynamics The African Slave Trade and Its Suppression Peter Hogg,2014-02-04 A comprehensive bibliography dealing specifically with African slave trade This volume has been sub classified for easier consultation and the compiler has provided where possible descriptions and comments on the works listed Household Servants and Slaves Diane Wolfthal,2022-04-12 The first book length study of household servants and slaves exploring a visual history over 400 years and four continents The first book length study of both images of ordinary household workers and their material culture Household Servants and Slaves A Visual History 1300 1700 covers four hundred years and four continents facilitating a better understanding of the changes in service that occurred as Europe developed a monetary economy global trade and colonialism Diane Wolfthal presents new interpretations of artists including the Limbourg brothers Albrecht D rer Paolo Veronese and Diego Vel zquez but also explores numerous long neglected objects including independent portraits of ordinary servants servant dolls and their miniature cleaning utensils and dummy boards candlesticks and tablestands in the form of servants and slaves Wolfthal analyzes the intersection of class race and gender while also interrogating the ideology of service investigating both the material conditions of household workers lives and the immaterial qualities with which they were associated If images repeatedly relegated servants to the background then this book does the reverse it foregrounds these figures in order to better understand the ideological and aesthetic functions that they served Slave Society in the Danish West Indies N.
