

A romantic scene featuring a couple holding hands in the foreground. The man is wearing a light blue button-down shirt and tan pants, while the woman is wearing a white top. In the background, the Golden Gate Bridge spans the water, and several colorful hot air balloons are floating in the sky. The overall atmosphere is bright and cheerful.

Redefining Modernism and Postmodernism Sebnem Toplu, Sebnem Toplu, 2010-06-09 Literary and cultural studies in the later twentieth century were very much shaped by debates about modernism and postmodernism as labels for successive periods but also for different competing interpretations of recent cultural history In the twenty first century the shock waves that were sent through the global system on political cultural economic and ecological levels by terrorist attacks regional conflicts poverty the financial crisis and the threat of environmental disaster raise anew the question of how and to what extent the tradition of modernity can be newly defined in a situation where the problematic aspects of these ideas have rightly been exposed but where they nevertheless appear to be crucial for any responsible assessment of contemporary world culture and its future perspectives Redefining Modernism and Postmodernism offers a collection of critical articles that resulted from the International Cultural Studies Symposium at Ege University Izmir Turkey in 2009 Scholars from around the world have contributed to this volume reflecting the current perspective on modernism and postmodernism shedding new light on literature literary theory philosophy politics religion film and art Providing an account of this field this book enables readers to navigate the subject by introducing essays on transformations of modernism and postmodernism in the twenty first century and the debates beyond the modernism postmodernism dichotomy

Women Film Directors Gwendolyn A. Foster, 1995-11-14 Until now there hasn't been one single volume authoritative reference work on the history of women in film highlighting nearly every woman filmmaker from the dawn of cinema including Alice Guy France 1896 Chantal Akerman Belgium Penny Marshall U S and Sally Potter U K Every effort has been made to include every kind of woman filmmaker commercial and mainstream avant garde and minority and to give a complete cross section of the work of these remarkable women Scholars and students of film popular culture Women's Studies and International Studies as well as film buffs will learn much from this work The Dictionary covers the careers of nearly 200 women filmmakers giving vital statistics where available listings of films directed by these women and selected bibliographies for further reading This is a one volume one stop resource a comprehensive up to date guide that is absolutely essential for any course offering an overview or survey of women's cinema It offers not only all available statistics but critical evaluations of the filmmakers work as well In order to keep the length manageable this volume focuses on women who direct fictional narrative films with occasional forays into the area of the documentary and is limited to film production rather than video production

Children of Coyote, Missionaries of Saint Francis Steven W. Hackel, 2017-01-15 Recovering lost voices and exploring issues intimate and institutional this sweeping examination of Spanish California illuminates Indian struggles against a confining colonial order and amidst harrowing depopulation To capture the enormous challenges Indians confronted Steven W Hackel integrates textual and quantitative sources and weaves together analyses of disease and depopulation marriage and sexuality crime and punishment and religious economic and political change As colonization reduced their numbers and remade California Indians congregated in missions where they forged communities under Franciscan oversight Yet missions proved disastrously unhealthful and coercive as Franciscans sought control over Indians beliefs and instituted unfamiliar systems of labor and punishment Even so remnants of Indian groups still survived when Mexican officials ended Franciscan rule in the 1830s Many regained land and found strength in ancestral cultures that predated the Spaniards arrival At this study's heart are the dynamic interactions in and around Mission San Carlos Borromeo between Monterey region Indians the Children of Coyote and Spanish missionaries soldiers and settlers Hackel places these local developments in the context of the California mission system and draws comparisons between California and other areas of the Spanish Borderlands and colonial America Concentrating on the experiences of the Costanoan and Esselen peoples during the colonial period Children of Coyote concludes with an epilogue that carries the story of their survival to the present day Congressional Record United States.
