How to Talk to Children

About Food Dr Anna Colton, 2025-02-13 Were you ever told you can't have dessert until you eat all your vegetables Or to be grateful for your meal Or perhaps you yourself have said Mummy's on a diet so she can't eat that or Daddy is fat you don't want to be like me We may not realise but we are constantly communicating our thoughts on food to our children As we navigate picky eating and high emotions at mealtimes as well as puberty diet culture body image and eating disorders now more than ever we need to change the way we communicate about food to our children and ourselves So how do we help children develop and nurture a healthy relationship with food Clinical psychologist and eating disorder specialist Dr Anna

Colton guides you through a judgement and shame free journey from pregnancy to a child's adolescence with accessible scientific and psychological understandings. She shows you how you've formed your relationship with food and gives you the practical evidence based tools to instil in children a positive relationship with eating. How to Talk to Children About Food will help you to learn the developmental stages of eating and gain the tools to support children through the ages. Navigate and manage complex food feelings without anxiety, anger or distress. Identify eating disorder behaviours and know when to intervene. Break negative eating cycles and patterns. Build a positive relationship between food and your child/teen's body. Have calm, happy and fuss free mealtimes for everyone.

Periodic Fasting: Lose Weight, Feel Great, Live Longer

Annchen Weidemann, 2016-06-01. Studies have shown that eating significantly less for limited periods of time produces better results than sustained dieting and that reducing calorie intake is beneficial for chronic conditions such as diabetes, hypertension and high cholesterol. Periodic Fasting introduces the concept of eating normally for five days followed by two days of restricted eating, also known as the 5:2 diet. During fasting, the body uses its inherent healing capacity to restore our health and wellbeing. Unlike many popular diets, periodic intermittent fasting puts you in control of what you eat. It's as simple as eating normal healthy meals on non-fasting days and making sensible choices on fasting days. It requires no special diet foods or supplements so everyone in the family can eat the same meals, making this an ideal weight loss programme for families with differing nutritional needs. Includes guidelines and menu plans for fasting and non-fasting days, examples of meals and snacks that make up the 600 calorie limit on fasting days and sixty tasty and nutritious recipes for breakfasts, lunches and dinners with variations on how to adapt the dishes for fasting days.

The Runner's World Cookbook

Editors of Runner's World Magazine, 2013-10-01. Runners need to eat well in order to perform and what they eat can have a direct influence on how they run. The Runner's World Cookbook is the perfect combination of performance boosting nutrients to maximize performance with easy, delicious and quick recipes. This cookbook contains 150 recipes sourced primarily from the authoritative voice in running itself, Runner's World magazine, along with exciting additional content. These recipes are intended to maximize a runner's performance and enhance nutritional benefits. The book will include two recipe indexes with visual keys for classification at the start of each recipe: V for vegetarian, VE for vegan, GF for gluten free and more. The first section of the book focuses on nutritional information and staple ingredients every runner should know, and the second part of the cookbook illustrates how to turn these facts into delicious, quick and nutrient boosting meals through delectable recipes. Every recipe will have an easy to follow icon system to identify key recipe attributes: i.e. recovery friendly, low calorie, quick and easy, along with a nutrition guide that will offer readers tips on how to make the healthiest choices regarding that particular category of food. Divided by categories: Salads, Soups, Stews, Sandwiches, Wraps, Burgers, Pizza, Pasta etc, these recipes are presented by types of dishes runners can look to for satisfying performance needs in appetizing ways.
