Suitcases And Backpacks Growing Through The Holocaust:

Suitcases and Backpacks Chava Kohavi Pines, 2014-09-30 Suitcases and Backpacks is a testimony of intricate detail that describes a young girl's survival in ghettos and concentration camps between 1942 and 1945. Readers follow her heartbreaking journey from Vienna to the Theresienstadt Ghetto to Auschwitz to a labor camp near Breslau followed by the alienation she feels upon returning to Vienna, her subsequent journey to Prague and finally the realization of her dream to immigrate to Palestine. Chava Kohavi Pines was born Eva Hirsch in 1927 in Vienna, Austria, to a middle class Jewish family. Since immigrating to Palestine in 1946, the author has resided in Kibbutz Dorot in the northern Negev where she worked as a teacher and counselor for years. Only with forty years' distance from the trauma of her youth has she been able to write an account of some of her experiences under Hitler. Bags, Burlap and Cotton, 1929 THE BLACK BUG - The Second Black Holocaust, Three Bags Full Roger Burlingame, 1936 A panoramic novel of New York State in the story of Hendrik Van Huyten and his attempt to sustain a little Holland in the midst of encroaching America. He acquired a feudal domain, a town grew up at his gates but he scarcely noticed it; his children strayed from the paths he laid down for them but only one escaped utterly. From him came a strain that paralleled and disturbed each succeeding generation until the modern generation recognized in it a vitality the direct strain lacked and found romance as well. It's grand reading with a period of 150 years and many generations. Kirkus Apocalyptic Discourse in Contemporary Culture Monica Germana, Aris Mousoutzanis, 2014-09-15 This interdisciplinary collection of essays focuses on critical and theoretical responses to the apocalypse of the late twentieth and early twenty-first century cultural production. Examining the ways in which apocalyptic discourses have had an impact on how we read the world's globalized space, the traumatic burden of history and the mutual relationship between language and eschatological belief, fifteen original essays by a group of internationally established and emerging critics reflect on the apocalypse's past, tradition, pervasive present and future legacy. The collection seeks to offer a new reading of the apocalypse understood as a complex and frequently paradoxical paradigm of contemporary Western culture. The majority of published collections on the subject have been published prior to the year 2000 and in their majority of cases locate the apocalypse in the future and envision it as something imminent. This collection offers a post-millennial perspective that perceives the end as immanent and simultaneously rooted in the past tradition. Jewish Experiences across the Americas Katalin Franciska Rac, Lenny A. Ureña Valerio, 2023-08-01 This volume explores the local specificities and global forces that shaped Jewish experiences in the Americas across five centuries, illuminating the culturally, religiously and politically diverse lives of Jewish minorities in the Western Hemisphere. Sparing the Child Hamida Bosmajian, 2013-09-13 Bosmajian explores children's texts that have either a Holocaust survivor or a former member of the Hitler Youth as a protagonist. Jews and Intermarriage in Nazi Austria Evan Burr Bukey, 2010-12-31 Evan Burr Bukey explores the experience of intermarried couples' marriages with Jewish and non-Jewish partners and their children in Vienna.

after Germany's seizure of Austria in 1938 These families coped with changing regulations that disrupted family life pitted relatives against each other and raised profound questions about religious ethnic and national identity Bukey finds that although intermarried couples lived in a state of fear and anxiety many managed to mitigate delay or even escape Nazi sanctions Drawing on extensive archival research his study reveals how hundreds of them pursued ingenious strategies to preserve their assets to improve their racial status and above all to safeguard the position of their children It also analyzes cases of intermarried partners who chose divorce as well as persons involved in illicit liaisons with non Jews Jews and Intermarriage in Nazi Austria concludes that although most of Vienna's intermarried Jews survived the Holocaust several hundred Jewish partners were deported to their deaths and children of such couples were frequently subjected to Gestapo harassment
