Summary Of Of Shades By Marguerite Poland:

Shades Marguerite Poland, 2012-10-02 St Matthias Mission 1902 There are men who know that when you are finished with this war of yours and have raised your flag to the glory of your Empire the one that we as black men are supposed to revere for having bestowed on us education faith prosperity and all the other high sounding gifts that you will sell us out perhaps against the advance of metaphorical cattle and say it is expedient You will sacrifice our rights in order to secure your peace with the Boers and shrug us off It is for this expedience that men like Tom and Reuben and Sonwabo Pumami are dead There will be thousands like them in the time to come Against a backdrop of drought the rinderpest pandemic the South African War the burgeoning gold mining industry and the complex birth of the exploitative system of recruiting migrant labour Shades explores the growing tensions between cultures in South Africa at the turn of the twentieth century and the deepening awareness of the black mission educated elite empowered by the printing press of the need to articulate their political and spiritual beliefs Set within the microcosm of an isolated Eastern Cape mission Shades is not only a love story and the chronicle of a family but a sensitive and perceptive insight into the country's wider conflicts It explores the slow but inexorable destruction of the fabric of a community the assault on its traditions and the struggle to reconcile two faiths the Christian and the traditional beliefs of the amaXhosa in their ancestral shades It is the story of those far sighted enough to seek convergence and those destined to undermine its wisdom Primarily Shades is an intimate tale of love friendship acceptance and profound loss of life of faith and of belonging A Literary Guide to the Eastern Cape Jeanette Eve, 2003 The Eastern Cape is a country of great natural beauty and tourist potential and has produced a wealth of writers and writings that have responded to the landscape in a variety of interesting and enjoyable ways Writing, Politics and Change in South Africa after Apartheid Christopher Warnes, 2023-06-08 This book shows how South African writing can help us to understand change after apartheid It aims to shift the attention of literary criticism away from a narrow set of highbrow South African authors and towards a wider range of texts including popular fiction The object of analysis at its largest level is the South African polity as it veered between the hopeful optimism of the Rainbow nation under Nelson Mandela the murderous muddling of Thabo Mbeki and the captured state under Jacob Zuma Questions of a political economic and sociological cast are central with changes in the workplace land reform indigenous knowledge xenophobia corruption and crime providing specific points of focus Writing Politics and Change in South Africa after Apartheid shows how creative literature of the post apartheid period has a unique and powerful capacity to illuminate these issues and to intervene in our understanding of them
