

Welcome to the Summer of Fire Enrichment List! This item was designed to help strong students challenge themselves and expand their learning; it corresponds with the story Summer of Fire from the Harcourt Trophies anthology. In my classroom, I give high performing students the list when we start working with the story, and they use any downtime in or out of class to progress with whatever item is most interesting to them. They get a chance to earn extra credit while pursuing their interests, and they also get more practice taking ownership of their learning! Enjoy!

Name _____ Summer of Fire Enrichment

Cultural Imperialism and the Indo-English Novel Fawzia Afzal-Khan, 1993-09-03 Cultural Imperialism and the Indo English Novel focuses on the novels of R K Narayan Anita Desai Kamala Markandaya and Salman Rushdie and explores the tension in these novels between ideology and the generic fictive strategies that shape ideology or are shaped by it Fawzia Afzal Khan raises the important question of how much the usage of certain ideological strategies actually helps the ex colonized writer deal effectively with postcolonial and postindependence trauma and whether or not the choice of a particular genre or mode employed by a writer presupposes the extent to which that writer will be successful in challenging the ideological strategies of containment perpetuated by most Western orientalist texts and writers She argues that the formal or generic choices of the four writers studied here reveal that they are using genre as an ideological strategy of liberation to help free their peoples and cultures from the hegemonic strategies of containment imposed upon them She concludes that the works studied here constitute an ideological rebuttal of Western writers denigrating containment of non Western cultures She also notes that self criticism as implied in Rushdie s works is not be confused with self hatred a theme found in Naipaul s work Congressional Record United States.
