Voting Assistance Guide ,2010 2010-11 Voting Assistance Guide, Publication ID# VAG 10-11 ,2010

Guide to County Organization and Management ,1968 "We are All Leaders" Staughton Lynd,1996 We Are All Leaders describes a kind of union qualitatively different from the bureaucratic business unions that make up the AFL CIO today From African American nutpickers in St Louis chemical and rubber workers in Akron textile workers in the South and bootleg miners in Pennsylvania to tenant farmers in the Mississippi Delta packinghouse and garment workers in Minnesota seamen in San Francisco and labor party campaigns throughout the country workers in the 1930s were experimenting with community based unionism Contributors to this volume draw on interviews with participants in the events described first person narratives trade union documents and other primary sources to tell what workers of the 1930s did The alternative unionism of the 1930s was democratic deeply rooted in mutual aid among workers in different crafts and work sites and politically independent The key to it was a value system based on egalitarianism The cry We are all leaders resonated among rank and file activists Their struggle often ignored by historians has much to teach us today about union organizing
