Sun Rays Joshua Livingston, 2011-07-08 In those hasty moments when a child can no longer stand the insanity of the grown up world and the only way to properly react is to cry there is nothing like a good story to help wind them back in Stories bring us together These days families fall apart because they lack a common story Nation rises up against nation because we've traded shared stories for individual ideals What is the antidote for the decay and erosion of our society What is the cure for the sickness and separation of our day Whatever it is it starts in the home and it may be as simple as a circle of friends telling tales Let us come on our knees like children sit at the feet of our Master and listen as he tells us a story This collection is for anyone who is a child fifty one tales in all written with brevity in the interest of short attention spans yet didactic in that each contains a moral center While they are geared towards both younger children and teenagers parents and educators may find themselves awakening as they read leaving them to wonder Who is the child And who is the Teacher everything fell into place There was little contact with anybody outside of the region but this location was arguably the most beautiful in the world This nation was thought to be the center of Terra and among the most peaceful and spiritual Terrans ever known This was the legendary Kingdom of Lemuria The Great King of Lemuria was madly in love with his wife The queen and king had met at a young age and once their eyes locked there was no separating them In an instant as if fate itself had predestined their union love was actualized and manifested within one another King Abraxas son of King Apollo and Queen Minerva daughter of Queen Athena together they were Lemuria s most potentially prominent rulers Their love for one another was beyond limits boundless and immeasurable The richness of nature in this nation was a direct reflection of the strong bloodlines that have ruled this land for centuries The shared culture finances property and belongings was a true utopian design that no other nation on Terra had ever accomplished Everyone practiced their own spiritual and economic endeavors living out their own philosophy but with great regard and respect to the ancient practices of the royal family Although nobody was forced to believe what the royals believed they were all required to give their attention to one of the traditions It was required for every citizen of Lemuria to donate to the Kingdom on the first Friday the 13th of the year One liter of blood would be donated from their first born child and everyone had at least three children This tradition was one that had been ongoing for at least three centuries and nobody ever questioned royalty s intentions or desires This nation was the most peaceful and prosperous of all nations of the land with no homelessness or illness plaguing any of its citizens Everyone that was born in Lemuria never left this sacred land and everyone who would visit would be jealous and dream of citizenship in this majestic destination One could only visit Lemuria by invitation and with a Lemurian s invitation their own reputation being an extension and requirement of the invitation Few were chosen and even fewer accepted to remain The land of love was the emergence of the birthright of the most beautiful and attractive of Terra s leaders In this time and era King Abraxas and Queen Minerva would pour all their love into one child who would be given the keys to the Kingdom Heir to the throne and all its glory to the beloved and cherished lands of those worthy of its inheritance Her name would be Sophia the keeper of knowledge and liberator of oppression when it arrives The fulfillment of prophecy and the one who will bear the fruits of truth and wisdom She will be the daughter of perdition the righteous mother of the lost She was is and will be the long awaited Moon Child
