Captivators for Christ R.C. Milco,2019-04-02 The impossibility of forgiving another as we have been forgiven was intended to drive us to our knees When our lives are shredded in the proclamation of Him who pardoned the undeserving we are propelled into the only Refuge we have the Redeemer who bought us back from the dead and now enables us to serve in His style of ministry From where do our reserves come when expenditures are daunting Where do we find strength to persevere And how are we to not lose heart when longing to see others captivated by the Lord s love we fail to witness any fruitfulness in the long suffering Through the Biblical meditations offered in Captivators for Christ the reader is invited to contemplate the cross where all of the forfeitures and losses of extending forgiveness are eclipsed by the lavish and matchless love of God our Rescuer

North Alabama Beer Sarah Bélanger, Kamara Bowling Davis, 2017-08-28 North Alabama built its first commercial brewery in Huntsville in 1819, three months before the state joined the Union. Before Prohibition in 1915, the region was peppered with numerous saloons, taverns, and dance halls. Locals still found ways to get their booze during Prohibition using Tennessee River steamboats and secret tunnels for smuggling. Alabama re-legalized beer in 1937, but it wasn't until 2004 when the grass roots organization Free the Hops took on the state's harsh beer laws that the craft beer scene really began to flourish. Authors Sarah Bélanger and Kamara Bowling Davis trace the history of beer in North Alabama from the early saloon days to the craft beer explosion.

Building a Learning Culture in America Kevin P. Chavous, 2016-09-30 Building a Learning Culture in America takes an incisive, no-holds-barred look at how America embraced and cultivated a culture of learning in the past, how that culture declined in the sixties and seventies, and what must be done to regain it. From political gridlock to systemic discrimination, Chavous details the many ways education today is off track and cites specific examples of what Americans might do to reform it. Part memoir and part manifesto, this is a frank, fascinating, and personal account of Chavous' experience as a politician working to enact school choice in Washington DC and throughout the United States. During the course of his political career, he has seen political skirmishes and party scuffles interfere with the United States' ability to improve its educational system. These conflicts did not cause the problem; they were merely a result. The true problem was more basic: the decline of America's learning culture. This pivotal work calls for Americans to unite in making the changes needed to reestablish a learning culture as an inherent piece of the American national fabric and tells us how to begin.
