Bol, 1994-08-01 This book traces the shared culture of the Chinese elite from the seventh to the twelfth centuries The early Tang definition of This Culture of Ours combined literary and scholarly traditions from the previous five centuries The late Sung Neo Confucian movement challenged that definition The author argues that the Tang Sung transition is best understood as a transition from a literary view of culture in which literary accomplishment and mastery of traditional forms were regarded as essential to the ethical orientation of Neo Confucianism in which the cultivation of one's innate moral ability was regarded as the goal of learning The author shows that this transformation paralleled the collapse of the Tang order and the restoration of a centralized empire under the Sung
