- Germany's political system (p. 26)

These results show that even with a high protection barrier, either countries are conducting specific measures to the protection interests of the gas producing region. However, according to the assessment of the E.U. gas markets, the present political barriers and arrangements have seriously hindered the gas supply, especially because of the lack of long-term agreements for gas supply. Therefore, the gas supply will be seriously hindered in the future. Therefore, according to the assessment, countries should consider gas supply and demand in the future. The gas supply and demand in the future will be seriously hindered in the future.
