Design for Ecological Democracy Randolph T. Hester, Jr., 2010-09-24 Shows how to combine the forces of ecological science and participatory democracy to design urban landscapes that enable us to act as communities are resilient rather than imperiled and touch our hearts Over the last fifty years the process of community building has been lost in the process of city building City and suburban design divides us from others in our communities destroys natural habitats and fails to provide a joyful context for our lives In Design for Ecological Democracy Randolph Hester proposes a remedy for our urban anomie He outlines new principles for urban design that will allow us to forge connections with our fellow citizens and our natural environment He demonstrates these principles with abundantly illustrated examples drawn from forty years of design and planning practice showing how we can design cities that are ecologically resilient that enhance community and that give us pleasure Hester argues that it is only by combining the powerful forces of ecology and democracy that the needed revolution in design will take place Democracy bestows freedom ecology creates responsible freedom by explaining our interconnectedness with all creatures Hester s new design principles are founded on three fundamental issues that integrate democracy and ecology enabling form resilient form and impelling form Urban design must enable us to be communities rather than zoning segregated enclaves and to function as informed democracies A simple bench at a centrally located post office for example provides an opportunity for connection and shared experience Cities must be ecologically resilient rather than ecologically imperiled adaptable to the surrounding ecology rather than dependent on technological fixes Resilient form turns increased urban density for example into an advantage And cities should impel us by joy rather than compel us by fear good cities enrich us rather than limit us Design for Ecological Democracy is essential reading for designers planners environmentalists community activists and anyone else who wants to improve a local community Electrify Saul

Griffith,2022-10-04 An optimistic but realistic and feasible action plan for fighting climate change while creating new jobs and a healthier environment electrify everything Climate change is a planetary emergency We have to do something now but what Saul Griffith has a plan In Electrify Griffith lays out a detailed blueprint optimistic but feasible for fighting climate change while creating millions of new jobs and a healthier environment Griffith s plan can be summed up simply electrify everything He explains exactly what it would take to transform our infrastructure update our grid and adapt our households to make this possible Billionaires may contemplate escaping our worn out planet on a private rocket ship to Mars but the rest of us Griffith says will stay and fight for the future Griffith an engineer and inventor calls for grid neutrality ensuring that households businesses and utilities operate as equals we will have to rewrite regulations that were created for a fossil fueled world mobilize industry as we did in World War II and offer low interest climate loans Griffith s plan doesn t rely on big not yet invented innovations but on thousands of little inventions and cost reductions We can still have our cars and our houses but the cars will be electric and solar panels will cover our roofs For a world trying to bounce back from a pandemic and economic crisis there is no other project that would create as many jobs up to twenty five million according to one economic analysis Is this politically possible We can change politics along with everything else Asking Smarter Questions Sam Knowles,2022-08-08 Insight is the superpower that drives innovation and enables us to understand the world from other peoples points of view be they customers or colleagues advocates or competitors This new book from data storyteller Sam Knowles explains how to ask smarter questions questions that by design stimulate more useful answers This is the shortcut to better productivity fast tracked innovation and organisational success for businesses universities charities and governments For too long the simple act of asking questions has been overlooked as almost too trivial to contemplate Asking Smarter Questions seeks to champion the art of curiosity by setting out a framework to make every question count The fundamental building blocks of insight are data and information joined together in new and often unpredictable ways The way we surface new data and information and make meaningful connections between data points is by asking smarter questions By taking this approach you can make your organisation a less confrontational more collaborative and more productive environment in which to work particularly in the more distributed and remote settings that will characterise the 2020s Managers directors and leaders will find the universal principles expert interviews and data driven recommendations a source of inspiration to share with their teams Asking Smarter Questions is aimed at professionals in businesses and organisations across all sectors and will help those working in many functions including market research intelligence insight analytics strategy marketing communications planning product development and innovation Artful History Aaron Sachs,John Demos,2020-02-18 A collection of memorable stirring and eloquent historical essays designed to help any historian write more artfully Is there any reason serious historical scholarship cannot receive literary expression Even the most committed empiricists and postmodernists might achieve better results by thinking of writing as a craft rather than a means of packaging research This book gathers some of the most compelling efforts to make history writing eloquent stirring and memorable demonstrating that even the most rigorous scholarship can take on a wide range of creative forms With selections from Jonathan Spence Simon Schama Saidiya Hartman Wendy Warren Jill Lepore Louis Masur Jane Kamensky and John Demos among others
