Information is a resource for finding and understanding business information. It contains explanation and instruction on the key facets of business information and provides detailed descriptions of key resources within both broad and specific categories. It can be used as a guide to further understanding the what, how and why of business information research. The changing arena of business information requires regular updating and awareness. This new edition has been thoroughly updated with three new chapters: Entrepreneurship, Competitive Intelligence and Corporate Social Responsibility. Other additions of note include subsections on internet and mobile marketing and tax havens and related issues; coverage of new legislation e.g. Dodd Frank and subsections on index funds, investment communities, regulatory bodies and laws, hedge funds, venture capital companies, assessing risks, robo advisors and more. The Handbook is for students, faculty, librarians and information professionals looking to gain a broader and deeper understanding of business information. Anyone needing to gain quick exposure to business information needs and resources for solutions will benefit from the volume as well.

Gender in Agriculture Sourcebook World Bank, Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), 2008-10-07. The Gender in Agriculture Sourcebook provides an up to date understanding of gender issues and a rich compilation of compelling evidence of good practices and lessons learned to guide practitioners in integrating gender dimensions into agricultural projects and programs. It serves as a tool for guidance showcasing key principles in integrating gender into projects, stimulating the imagination of practitioners to apply lessons learned, experiences and innovations to the design of future support and investment in the agriculture sector. The Sourcebook draws on a wide range of experience from World Bank, Food and Agriculture Organization, FAO, International Fund for Agricultural Development, IFAD and other donor agencies, governments, institutions and groups active in agricultural development. The Sourcebook looks at access to and control of assets, access to markets, information and organization and capacity to manage risk and vulnerability through a gender lens. There are 16 modules covering themes of cross cutting importance for agriculture with strong gender dimensions: Policy, Public Administration and Governance, Agricultural Innovation and Education, Food Security, Markets, Rural Finance, Rural Infrastructure, Water, Land, Labor, Natural Resource Management and Disaster and Post Conflict Management and specific subsectors in agriculture: Crops, Livestock, Forestry and Fisheries. A separate module on Monitoring and Evaluation is included, responding to the need to track implementation and development impact. Each module contains three different sub-units: 1. A Module Overview gives a broad introduction to the topic and provides a summary of major development issues in the sector and rationale of looking at gender dimension. 2. Thematic Notes provide a brief and technically sound guide in gender integration in selected themes with lessons learned, guidelines, checklists, organizing principles, key questions and key performance indicators and 3. Innovative Activity Profiles describe the design and innovative features of recent and exciting projects and activities that have been implemented or are ongoing.
