The Draftnik Drew Boylhart,2012-08 It has been reported that 40 million sports fans watch or listen to the NFL Draft for three days every year For me personally it s a year round endeavor Since 1979 my first year of involvement in the draft it has grown and developed into its own type of cottage industry The Draft because of its addicting nature has brought new revenue to the NFL The driving force behind this new source of revenue has always been Draftnik s like the late Joel Buschbaum Mel Kiper and others like me We are Draftnik s and the unexpected affect the draft has had on us is an American story in itself It s a story of a person creating something out of nothing and making it important in this case to the sports world It s also a story about how interest in the draft was the driving force in my life which helped me to indentify and deal with being Dyslectic Bias in the Booth Dylan Gwinn,2015-03-02 Most of us see sports as a welcome even blessed relief from the challenges and frustrations of everyday life We want to sit back open a beer and enjoy the game But many of those who bring us the game have a different agenda they use their broadcasting platform to harangue us with their own politically correct preoccupations If a seventh round NFL draft pick who can t make the team or an over the hill basketball player declares that he s gay he gets wall to wall media coverage and is hailed as a hero If a stripper accuses college lacrosse players of rape liberal sports reporters lead the lynch mob with no apologies when the bearers of white privilege are proved innocent In his blistering new book Bias in the Booth sports reporter and commentator Dylan Gwinn takes you inside the sports media spin machine to reveal what they hope you won t notice the sports media are no different from the news and entertainment media
