The Message of the Church Don Carson, 2013-04-23 The Bible begins and ends with God dwelling with his people from Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden to the great multitude in the New Jerusalem in the book of Revelation At each step God gathered his people together to speak to them hear from them and change them to be more like him God assembling his people whom he loves is what the Bible calls church The church should aspire to be a group of vibrant loving risk everything people who are passionately committed to living out the values of God's Word and looking forward to the new creation Churches and their pastors and leaders need to hear what the Bible says about who they are and what they are to do Chris Green takes the message of the church to mean first that the church has a message which is that God has saved his people through Christ second that the church is the created and saved result of that message and third that the church is a message which is that he has saved broken people like us and by belonging to his people we are trying to respond to him in the ways he requires His stimulating and insightful exposition begins with a survey of the church from eternity to Eden to exodus to exile to eternity and then focuses on various dimensions of the church's life and ministry including its worship unity maturity servants gifts holiness boundaries and future

The Mother Church John C. Bangs, 2010-07-22 It would be reasonable to estimate that multiple hundreds of thousands of people have become followers of Jesus Christ as a result of the modern church planting movement One characteristic of the literature of this movement has been an almost singular focus on the individual who is sent out to lead the new congregation rather than on the vital role of the sending or sponsoring church

Practically all the books are written with one target in mind this individual leader the pioneer pastor usually referred to as the church planter The Mother Church is not written for pioneer pastors it is written for the leaders of potential mother churches It is designed to help leaders assess whether and when the birthing of a new church is a good idea for their congregation and to provide them with tools to birth and nurture healthy thriving life giving new churches Church leaders who desire to see their mission efforts survive and thrive need to give special attention to the hard won insights of John Bangs The Mother Church Bangs is not only a mission planter and pastor but he brings the broader view of a church planting leader Charles J Scalise Ph D Professor of Church History Fuller Theological Seminary The Mother Church will revolutionize the way we view and do birthing of mission churches Kent J Ingle D Min Dean College of Ministry Northwest University
