The Ontology of Time A. Chernyakov, 2013-03-09 To understand the role of time within the scope of 20th century ontology after the fundamental works of E Husserl M Heidegger P Ricoeur and E Levinas means to develop simultaneously the ontology of time My aim is to demonstrate that in a definite sense the postmodern ontology is chronology The argument proceeds and this constitutes its essential novelty within the multidimensional space involving not only the synchronic stratum of current conceptuality in its internal logical relationships but also the diachronic axis of conceptual genesis I apply different strategies of analysis in order to emphasize that the concept of the human Self the concept of being and the concept of time are inseparably linked with one another To this triad I add one more link of a theological nature viz the relationship between God and the human mind as it has been developed in Orthodox apophatic theology and during the Scholastic controversies concerning the problem of visio Dei Time's Arrow, Time's Cycle Stephen Jay Gould, 1987 Examines scientific theories pertaining to the measurement of earth's history Knowledge for the Time John Timbs, 2018-04-04 Reproduction of the original Knowledge for the Time by John Timbs French Philosophy of Technology Sacha Loeve, Xavier Guchet, Bernadette Bensaude Vincent, 2018-05-28 Offering an overall insight into the French tradition of philosophy of technology this volume is meant to make French speaking contributions more accessible to the international philosophical community The first section Negotiating a Cultural Heritage presents a number of leading 20th century philosophical figures from Bergson and Canguilhem to Simondon Dagognet or Ellul and intellectual movements from Personalism to French Cybernetics and political ecology that help shape philosophy of technology in the Francophone area and feed into contemporary debates ecology of technology politics of technology game studies The second section Coining and Reconfiguring Technoscience traces the genealogy of this controversial concept and discusses its meanings and relevance A third section Revisiting Anthropological Categories focuses on the relationships of technology with the natural and the human worlds from various perspectives that include anthropotechnology Anthropocene technological and vital norms and temporalities The final section Innovating in Ethics Design and Aesthetics brings together contributions that draw on various French traditions to afford fresh insights on ethics of technology philosophy of design techno aesthetics and digital studies The contributions in this volume are vivid and rich in original approaches that can spur exchanges and debates with other philosophical traditions In Search of Lost Time Volume I Swann's Way Marcel Proust, 1998-06-23 In Swann's Way the themes of Proust's masterpiece are introduced and the narrator's childhood in Paris and Combray is recalled most memorably in the evocation of the famous maternal good night kiss The recollection of the narrator's love for Swann's daughter Gilberte leads to an account of Swann's passion for Odette and the rise of the nouveaux riches Verdurins For this authoritative English language edition D J Enright has revised the late Terence Kilmartin's acclaimed reworking of C K Scott Moncrieff's translation to take into account the new definitive French editions of la recherche du temps perdu the final volume of these new editions was published by the Bibliothèque de la Pléiade in 1989 Time, Space, and Women's Lives in Early Modern Europe Anne Jacobson Schutte, Thomas Kuehn, Silvana Seidel Menchi, 2001-09-01 This collection offers a variety of approaches to aspects of women's lives It moves beyond men's prescriptive pronouncements about female nature to women's lived experiences replacing the singular woman with plural women and illuminating female agency The contributors show that women's lives changed over the life course and differed according to region and social class They also demonstrate that in the early modern period the largely private spaces in women's lives were not enclosed worlds isolated from the public spaces in which men operated Contributors to this important collection are leading international scholars and offer strong substantial and archival based research Heidegger's Being and Time Richard F. H. Polt, 2005 Heidegger's

Being and Time Critical Essays provides a variety of recent studies of Heidegger's most important work. Twelve prominent scholars representing diverse nationalities, generations, and interpretive approaches deal with general methodological and ontological questions, particular issues in Heidegger's text, and the relation between Being and Time and Heidegger's later thought. All of the essays presented in this volume were never before available in an English language anthology. Two of the essays have never before been published in any language. Dreyfus and Guignon, three of the essays have never been published in English before. Grondin, Kisiel, and Thom, and two of the essays provide previews of works in progress by major scholars. Dreyfus and Kisiel.

In Search of Lost Time, Volume I Marcel Proust, 2000-11-01 The transmutation of sensation into sentiment, the ebb tide of memory, waves of emotion such as desire, jealousy, and artistic euphoria: this is the material of this enormous and yet singularly light and translucent work. VLADIMIR NABOKOV In the overture to Swann's Way, the themes of the whole of In Search of Lost Time are introduced, and the narrator's childhood in Paris and Combray is recalled most memorably in the evocation of the famous maternal good night kiss. The recollection of the narrator's love for Swann's daughter, Gilberte, leads to an account of Swann's passion for Odette and the rise of the nouveaux riches, Verdurins. The final volume of a new definitive text of A la recherche du temps perdu was published by the Bibliothèque de la Pléiade in 1989. For this authoritative English language edition, D. J. Enright has revised the late Terence Kilmartin's acclaimed reworking of C. K. Scott Moncrieff's translation to take into account the new French editions.

Mehmed the Conqueror and His Time Franz Babinger, 1978 One of the most important figures in Ottoman history, Mehmed was the architect of victories that inspired fear throughout Europe and contributed to an image of the Turk prevalent in Western art and literature for many years. From the Western viewpoint, Mehmed was seen as the man who gave the death blow to Byzantium, destroying the last vestige of the Eastern Roman Empire. Not surprisingly, the Turks regard him as the greatest of all sultans, a figure unparalleled in the history of the world for military prowess, statecraft, and patronage of the arts and sciences.

Time and Death Carol J. White, edited by Mark Ralkowski, 2017-03-02 In Time and Death, Carol White articulates a vision of Martin Heidegger's work which grows out of a new understanding of what he was trying to address in his discussion of death. Acknowledging that the discussion of this issue in Heidegger's major work Being and Time is often far from clear, White presents a new interpretation of Heidegger which short-circuits many of the traditional criticisms. White claims that we are all in a better position to understand Heidegger's insights after fifty years because they have now become a part of the conventional wisdom of common opinion. His view shows up in accounts of knowledge in the physical sciences, in the assumptions of the social sciences, in art and film, even in popular culture in general, but does so in ways ignorant of their origins. Now that these insights have filtered down into the culture at large, we can make Heidegger intelligible in a way that perhaps he himself could not. White presents the best possible case for Heidegger, making him more intelligible to those people with a long acquaintance with his work, those with a long aversion to it, and in particular to those just starting to pursue an interest in it White places the problems with which Heidegger is dealing in the context of issues in contemporary Anglo American philosophy in order to better locate him for the more mainstream audience The language and approach of the book is able to accommodate the novice but also offers much food for thought for the Heidegger scholar That Time the Manga Editor Started a New Life in the Countryside 3 Kumagae,2023-12-12 After finally harvesting his rice Kuma s next move is to leave the countryside But when Kuma and Miyu get a taste of vegetables that knock their socks off the farming itch strikes again and lands them back on a farm Problem is they ve fallen into the hands of a fermentation fanatic and her friend a mad soil scientist with plans of world domination As winter rolls in and rice is off the table Kuma gets a crash course in his next possible venture A Long Time Burning Donald Thomas,2024-12-06 Censorship of the written word has proved a constant source for debate and argument To cut or not to cut is a question with a long and fascinating history First published in 1969 A Long Time Burning is an account of the political religious and moral censorship of literature in the context of English literary history It is principally concerned with the evolution of a modern pattern of censorship between the abolition of licensing in 1695 and the late Victorian period The author outlines the motives and methods of censorship illustrating these by more detailed discussion of such cases as those involving Edmund Curll John Wilkes Thomas Paine William Hone Richard Carlile William Dugdale and Henry Vizetelly The unofficial trade in banned books and the campaigns of the Proclamation Society the Society for the Suppression of Vice and the National Vigilance Association are described with the aid of some previously unpublished material The book includes an anthology of illustrative material quoting extracts from publications banned at various times and for various reasons Pages from such books as Venus in the Cloister are reprinted for the first time in more than two centuries while the other documents range from the Blasphemy Act of 1698 to a prosecution brought under the Race Relations Act of 1965 Dying for Time Martin Hägglund,2012-10-30 Novels by Proust Woolf and Nabokov have been read as expressions of a desire to transcend time H gglund gives them another reading entirely fear of time and death is generated by investment in temporal life Engaging with Freud and Lacan he opens a new way of reading the dramas of desire as they are staged in both philosophy and literature Class and Time-Based Subjective Inequality Nicolas Duvoux,2025-03-11 Challenging the inference in social science that taking subjectivity into account somehow conflicts with approaches that emphasize the reality of the material conditions of existence this book shows how subjective perceptions of one s future can help to capture class and inequality considering the extent to which material conditions such as wealth income and power are revealed by subjective indicators That is to say to take the full measure of social inequality feels like economic opportunities matter subjectivity when considered as temporal and closely linked with material conditions of existence helps us apprehend social constraints By presenting three empirical case studies that encompass both qualitative and quantitative methods the author not only elaborates on arguments in Bourdieu s early and relatively unknown works but also demonstrates the importance of sense of security and insecurity as markers of class inequality An original analysis of wealth that deepens and enriches the study of class inequality Class and Time Based Subjective Inequality highlights the relevance of a dynamic and absolute definition of subjective inequality for capturing marginalized positions It will therefore appeal to scholars of sociology economics and politics with interests in social theory contemporary inequalities and social class The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
