Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders

The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja, Meshach B. Ogunniyi, 2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next

Reconceptualising Multilingualism on African Radio Limukani Mathe, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2025-01-31 This book redefines multilingualism via the concept of radio in Africa Africa presents unique challenges of lingual diversity which the media still struggles to accommodate particularly when it comes to indigenous languages Contributors argue that the linguistic realities of African radio reflect ethnic co existence and fluidity of identity in pre colonial colonial and post colonial contexts They argue that communities consist of several majorized and minoritized indigenous languages which if closely analysed reflect a commonality of multilingualism The book also suggests practical measures through which linguistic co existence could be achieved and explores cases that redefine reconceptualize and reframe multilingualism on African radio
