Zimbabwe Journal of Educational Research ,2005 Beyond the Enclave Godfrey

Kanyenze,Timothy Kondo,2011-07-26 Beyond the Enclave sets out to unravel the contradiction of a country Zimbabwe where a rich diverse resource base co exists with endemic poverty One reason lies in the colonial economy which was predicated on an ideology of white supremacy creating an enclave formal economy employing one fifth of the labour force Yet over three decades after independence the non formal segment has become even more entrenched This book assesses Zimbabwes economy through three main phases 1980 90 when a strong social policy framework proved difficult to sustain due to erratic growth and 1991 96 when structural adjustment demanded a market driven approach to development The third phase is characterized by crisis management leading to policy inconsistencies and reversals Not surprisingly such incoherence saw the economy descend into hyperinflation and paralysis in 2007 2008 leading to the signing of the Global Political Agreement in September 2008 In the absence of formal dollarization economic recovery after the adoption of the multi currency regime has remained fragile leaving an estimated 70 per cent of the population outside the banking system This has further entrenched uneven enclave growth as the economy remains locked in a low income poverty trap There is a need to facilitate transition towards formality to promote decent jobs Furthermore a strategic developmental role for the state in the economy is now widely recognized as vital for development Beyond the Enclave argues for a new approach to development in Zimbabwe based on pro poor and inclusive strategies which will contribute to the well being of all of its citizens and wise stewardship of its resources It offers suggestions on policy formulation implementation monitoring and evaluation in all sectors designed to promote inclusive growth and humane development

Teacher in Zimbabwe ,2014      *Implementing Deeper Learning and 21st Century Education Reforms Fernando M. Reimers,2020-11-04 This open access book is a comparative analysis of recent large scale education reforms that broadened curriculum goals to better prepare students for the 21st century The book examines what governments actually do when they broaden curriculum goals with attention to the details of implementation To this end the book examines system level reforms in six countries at various levels of development The study includes system level reforms in jurisdictions where students achieve high levels in international assessments of basic literacies such as Singapore and Ontario Canada as well as in nations where students achieve much lower levels such as Kenya Mexico Punjab Pakistan and Zimbabwe The chapters examine system level reforms that focus on strengthening the capacity to teach the basics as in Ontario and Pakistan as well as reforms that aim at building the capacity to teach a much broader set of competencies and skills such as Kenya Mexico Singapore and Zimbabwe The volume includes systems at very different levels of spending per student and reforms at various points in the cycle of policy implementation some just starting some struggling to survive a governmental transition and others that have been in place for an extended period of time From the comparative study of these reforms we aim to provide an understanding of how to build the capacity of education systems to teach 21st century skills at scale in diverse settings

Results Malawi. Presidential Commission of Inquiry into the Malawi School Certificate of Education (MSCE) Examination Results,2000   Some Developments in Research in Science and Mathematics in Sub-Saharan Africa Lorna Holtman,2008 Much attention in late developing countries is given to providing access to studies which allow school leavers to enter science and technology related careers These programmes are driven by the belief that graduates will then substantially contribute to the developmental needs of their countries But is providing access to institutions enough Students in developing countries often come from school environments lacking in resources human physical and financial This book in a number of chapters reviews research related to the crucial dimension of epistemological access to the disciplines of import which students need as much as institutional access in order to improve their chances of success A significant feature of this collection s research studies is that their empirical bases are highly localised covering areas such as research methods access curriculum instruction and assessment and the relevance of science and mathematics education in Zimbabwe Uganda Swaziland South Africa Namibia Malawi Ghana and Lesotho This volume provides invaluable insights and will be of relevance to researchers policy makers and lecturers interested in these research outcomes in Sub Saharan Africa It is the outcome of a doctoral research capacity development project the Graduate Studies in Science Mathematics and Technology Education

GRASSMATE   The State, Ideology, and Education Rugano Jonas Zvobgo,1997   The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja,Meshach B. Ogunniyi,2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing fa ade of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next   Facets of Power

,2023-01-10 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the world s largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwa s diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the country s security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwa s diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the mineral s secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them     Access of Girls and Women to Scientific, Technical and Vocational Education in Africa Augustin Mariro,1999     Parliamentary Debates Zimbabwe.
