Reading Literacy at Junior Secondary School Level in Zimbabwe Rosemary Moyana,2000 Zimbabwe invested in much human and material development of education from independence in 1980 Many innovative ideas have been explored to improve the quality of education with a particular focus on reading literacy In 1988 Zimbabwe joined 31 other countries in a reading literacy research study at primary and junior secondary school levels under the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement Data is taken from 143 schools and over 2000 students

Private Wildlife Conservation in Zimbabwe Harry Wels,2021-11-08 This book is the first about private wildlife conservation and community involvement in Zimbabwe It is a case study based on ethnographic fieldwork done in 1998 It focuses on the joint venture between a private wildlife conservation initiative the Save Valley Conservancy and its surrounding communities in terms of reciprocal exchange and the land question It makes clear amongst other things that the current political tragedy in Zimbabwe about land did not start when Mugabe lost the referendum in February 2000 The book tries to offer an explanation for the unforgiving route that Mugabe has obviously taken in the land question despite his words of reconciliation when he came to power in 1980 This book is of particular interest to students practitioners and academics in the fields of private wildlife conservation community participation and organisational co operation

(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams,Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng,2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation Authors voices come from a variety of contexts some historical some contemporary some providing analyses over time But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced invisible marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion ethnicity sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider This book is thus about who we are not only demographically but also in terms of the past especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks The concluding chapters provides ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts
