Zimsec June 2economics Paper3:

Zimbabwe in Transition Timothy Murithi, Aquilina Mawadza, 2011 Zimbabwe's Transition to Democracy in the post independence era has been a very difficult one. To date there have been a number of sustained efforts by various local regional and international actors to move Zimbabwe towards democracy as well as attempts to find a lasting solution to the political and economic crises that seriously affected the country's progress from the late 1990s. However, these attempts have been less successful mainly because Zimbabwe has complex political and economic problems with interlocking national regional and international political and economic dimensions rooted in both historical and contemporary factors and developments. To understand the complexities of the challenges to Zimbabwe's transition to democracy as well as prospects for political change and democracy in the country, Zimbabwe in Transition critically examines both the historical and contemporary dynamics shaping political and economic developments in the country, taking into account voices from a broad spectrum of Zimbabwean society including civil society, faith-based communities, the diaspora, women, community leaders, the media, youth and regional actors such as SADC and the AU. Book jacket

The System of Protection and Industrial Development in Zimbabwe Lindani B. Ndlovu, 2018-12-20 First published in 1994, this volume seeks to evaluate the impact of trade restrictions and other forms of government intervention on the development of manufacturing industries in Zimbabwe in the 1980s. The study focuses on the period after independence in Zimbabwe up to 1989. The emphasis of the study is on a) the extent and levels of effective protection afforded the industries by the system and b) the efficiency of all industries created by the system of protection. This research seeks to assess the extent of protection created by managed trade and other forms of government intervention and the resultant efficiency of manufacturing sector industries using single period effective rate of protection (ERP) and domestic resource cost (DRC) estimates. The aim is to show the structure of incentives and efficiency implications of intervention for sample firms and the whole manufacturing sector.

Development in Difficult Sociopolitical Contexts A. Ware, 2016-04-30 This edited volume explores development in the so-called fragile failed and pariah states. It examines the literature on both fragile states and their development and offers eleven case studies on countries ranking in the very high alert and very high warning categories in the Fund for Peace Failed States Index.

Seeds for African Peasants Esbern Friis-Hansen, 1995

'Progress' in Zimbabwe? David Moore, Norma Kriger, Brian Raftopoulos, 2013-09-13 Zimbabwe's severe crisis and a possible way out of it with a transitional government and the new era for which it prepares the ground demands a coherent scholarly response. Progress can be employed as an organising theme across many disciplinary approaches to Zimbabwe's societal devastation. At wider levels too, the concept of progress is fitting. It underpins modern liberal and radical perspectives of development pervading the social sciences and humanities. Yet perceptions of progress are subject increasingly to intensive critical inquiry. Their gruesome end is signified in the political projects of Robert Mugabe and ZANU PF. John Gray's Black Mass: Apocalyptic Religion and the Death of Utopia indicates this

It is expected that participants will engage directly in debates about how the idea of progress has informed their disciplines from political science and history to labour and agrarian studies and then relate these arguments to the Zimbabwean case in general and their research in particular This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies The Zimbabwe Science News ,2002 AIDS and Rural Livelihoods Anke Niehof,Gabriel Rugalema,2019-01-15 AIDS epidemics continue to threaten the livelihoods of millions of people in sub Saharan Africa Three decades after the disease was first recognized the annual death toll from AIDS exceeds that from wars famine and floods combined Yet despite millions of dollars of aid and research there has previously been little detailed on the ground analysis of the multifaceted impacts on rural people Filling that gap this book brings together recent evidence of AIDS impacts on rural households livelihoods and agricultural practice in sub Saharan Africa There is particular emphasis on the role of women in affected households and on the situation of children The book is unique in presenting micro level information collected by original empirical research in a range of African countries and showing how well grounded conclusions on trends impacts and local responses can be applied to the design of HIV responsive policies and programmes AIDS impacts are more diverse than we previously thought and local responses more varied sometimes innovative sometimes desperate The book represents a major contribution to our understanding of the impacts of AIDS in the epidemic s heartland and how these can be managed at different levels History of Soybean Variety Development, Breeding and Genetic Engineering (1902-2020) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2020-06-25 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographic index 152 photographs and illustrations mostly color Free of charge in digital format on Google Books Community of Insecurity Laurie Nathan,2016-05-23 Exploring the formation evolution and effectiveness of the regional security arrangements of the Southern African Development Community SADC Nathan examines a number of vital and troubling questions why has SADC struggled to establish a viable security regime why has it been unable to engage in successful peacemaking and why has it defied the optimistic prognosis in the early 1990s that it would build a security community in Southern Africa He argues that the answers to these questions lie in the absence of common values among member states the weakness of these states and their unwillingness to surrender sovereignty to the regional organization Paradoxically the challenge of building a co operative security regime lies more at the national level than at the regional level The author s perspective is based on a unique mix of insider access analytical rigour and accessible theory Zimbabwe's Agricultural Revolution Mandivamba Rukuni,Carl K. Eicher,1994 Grid-locked African Economic Sovereignty Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor,Nhemachena, Artwell,2019-02-06 The emergent so called Fourth Industrial Revolution is regarded by some as a panacea for bringing about development to Africans This book dismisses this flawed reasoning Surfacing how investors are actually looting and plundering Africa how the industrial internet of things the gig economies digital economies and cryptocurrencies breach African political and economic sovereignty the book pioneers what can be called anticipatory economics which anticipate the future of economies It is argued that the future of Africans does not necessarily require degrowth postgrowth postdevelopment postcapitalism or sharing solidarity economies it requires attention to age old questions about African ownership and control of their resources Investors have to invest in ensuring that Africans own and control their resources Further it is pointed out that the historical imperial structural creation of forced labour is increasingly morphing into what we call the structural creation of forced leisure which is no less lethal for Africans Because both the structural creation of forced labour and the structural creation of forced leisure are undergirded by transnational neo imperial plunder theft robbery looting and dispossession of Africans this book goes beyond the simplistic arguments that Euro America developed due to the industrial revolutions

Getting Global Monetary Policy on Track

Michael D. Bordo, John B. Taylor, John H. Cochrane, 2025-03-01 Based on the 2024 Monetary Policy Conference held at the Hoover Institution at Stanford University Getting Global Monetary Policy on Track reviews recent global inflation asking how central banks could have better responded and how they can improve their forecasting and policy strategies to avoid inflationary bursts in the future Discussions delve into the interactions of fiscal and monetary policies digital currency and how the European Central Bank has become more dovish preferring to keep interest rates low The publication shares the presentations from economic experts around the globe who contribute analysis of monetary policy and strategy from Asia Europe Latin America and the United States in large economies and in emerging markets It also reproduces the lively and informative discussions at the conference Essays on financial regulation examine asset value and equity levels in the US banking system Treasury market turmoil Federal Reserve independence the 2023 UK pension fund meltdown and regulatory expansion Additional topics include labor market responses to the surge in remote work how Israel handled financial shocks following the 2023 Hamas attack and continued fallout from the COVID 19 pandemic the supply fiscal and relative demand shocks of the pandemic and how central banks handled postpandemic inflation

Risk, Resettlement and Relations

Marleen Dekker, 2004 Climate Change Adaptations in Dryland Agriculture in Semi-Arid Areas Xavier Poshiwa, G. Ravindra Chary, 2022-02-10 This book highlights the approaches for achieving trans disciplinary research integration for semi arid dryland agriculture systems under changing climates while also identifying the elements of a collaborative research agenda that are needed to advance global food security The book emphasizes climate change being a reality and how drylands are bearing the brunt in diverse ways The major impact of dryland agriculture is on communities that need to avoid the short and long term impacts of the changing climate adapt strategies that can minimize these impacts and be able to mitigate climate change for which they need climate smart interventions These interventions are only realized through knowledge and experience sharing among stakeholders from different sectors and backgrounds It is in this context that the publication was seen as a necessity in order to bring together ideas that will transform lives and build adaptation capacities thereby providing the much needed products in communities leading to development

Uneven Zimbabwe Patrick

Bond,1998 Uneven Zimbabwe examines the influence of domestic and international financial markets and financiers in uneven development in Zimbabwe using and contributing to the tools of radical political economy Theoretically Bond begins with criticism of the classical Marxist concepts of finance capital for focusing on institutional characteristics and failing to grasp underlying dynamics Instead as economic crisis tendencies emerge the power of finance periodically intensifies temporarily displacing crisis through time and space and across geographical scales But the limits of the financial solution become evident when paper assets delink from the productive assets they are meant to represent as well as in the role that finance plays in amplifying uneven development across different economic sectors spaces and scales Accessions List, Eastern Africa Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya,1989 Vols for 19 include a publishers directory Globalization and Health ,2004-11-01 This international collection of essays on globalization and health examines the global health issues associated with the economic technological political social cultural and environmental effects of globalization the increasing movement of capital people technology goods information environmental pollution and disease around the globe These essays analyze the complex linkages between globalization and health the health effects of globalization at all levels global national and local and the policy and institutional responses associated with the health consequences of globalization My Skills, My Money, My Brighter Future in Zimbabwe Wendy-Ann Rowe,Carrie Miller,Melita Sawyer,2011 The case studies in this volume describe how Catholic Relief Services and its partners worked with farmers and other stakeholders in Africa India Latin America and Southeast Asia during the last five years to develop agricultural business enterprises Each case study focuses on a specific stage in the agroenterprise development process and together they build a comprehensive outline of how to go about helping farmers enter and compete in agricultural markets Introductory and concluding essays describe the learning alliance process that provided the foundation for these programs synthesize the lessons learned and map out a strategy for future work Rural Transformations Holly Barcus,Roy Jones,Serge Schmitz,2022-03-30 This book focuses on the transformation of rural places peoples and land endemic to the contemporary manifestations of globalization Migration global economic restructuring and climate change are rapidly transforming rural places across the globe Yet global attention characteristically focuses on urban social and economic issues neglecting the continued roles of rural people and places Organized around the three core themes of demographic change rural urban partnerships and innovations and landscape change the case studies included in this volume represent both the Global North and Global South and underscore the complexity and multi scalar nature of these contemporary challenges in rural development planning and sustainability This book would be valuable supplementary reading for both students and professionals in the fields of rural land management and rural planning Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe Kennedy Manduna,2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe s extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country. Indigenisation of Zimbabwe's extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non-Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities. This policy, however, was a response to political, economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe's government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000-2003. An intervention therefore which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption, co-optation and collusion, which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation. By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power, capital and minerals and placing extractive industry indigenisation in capitalism, this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular. This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries, natural resource management, African politics and African development.
