Hegemony and Language Policies in Southern Africa Finex Ndhlovu, 2015-10-13

Hegemony and Language Policies in Southern Africa argues that language policy whether formal or informal micro or macro has always been the centrepiece of identity imaginings struggles for political emancipation and quests for cultural affirmation and economic advancement in the colonial and postcolonial histories of African nations This book addresses questions on the social and political history of language policies focusing on their significance for ethnic immigrant and social groups as well as for various political projects in southern Africa as they have unfolded from the late

Beyond the Crises:

Zimbabwes Prospects for Transformation Tendai Murisa, Tendai Chikweche, 2015-12-01 Over the past years few African countries have been the focus of discussions and analyses generating a vast array of literature as much as Zimbabwe The socioeconomic and political crises since the turn of the century have deeply transformed the country from the ideals of a vibrant freshly independent nation just two decades earlier These transformations have necessitated the call for the restructuring of Zimbabwean society polity and economy But this literature remains exclusively within the realm of academic thinking and theorising with no concerted effort to move beyond this by explicitly drawing out the policy implications Beyond the Crises Zimbabwes Prospects for Transformation is a welcome addition to the academic and policy literature with a much broader and all embracing focus in terms of policy interventions By focusing on different aspects of social and economic justice Murisa and Chikweche go beyond initiating a broad discussion on these two key pillars of human development with a view to suggesting possible future directions of practical solutions and policy development for the attainment of inclusive

social and economic justice for Zimbabweans

Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Edward Shizha, Ngoni Makuvaza, 2017-04-17 What have postcolonial Sub Saharan African countries achieved in their education policies and programmes How far have they contributed to successful attainment of the targeted 2015 Millennium Development Goals MDGs on education What were the constraints and barriers for developing an education system that appeals to the needs of the sub region Re thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Post Millennium Development Goals is an attempt to demonstrate that Sub Saharan Africa has the potential and capability to provide solutions to challenges facing its desire and ability to provide sustainable education to its people To that end the contributors are academics with an African vision attempting to come up with African home grown perspectives to fill the gap created by the lapse of the MDGs as the guiding vision and framework for educational provision in Africa and beyond The book seeks to articulate and address African issues from an informed as well as objective African perspective The book is also intended to provide insights to scholars who are interested in studying and understanding the nature of postcolonial education in the Sub Saharan African region Given the objectives and themes of this book it is intended for academic scholars undergraduate and graduate students human rights scholars curriculum developers college and university academics teachers education policy makers international organisations and local and international non governmental organisations that are interested in African education policies and programmes Rethinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century provides contemporary reflections from multiple perspectives and re positions the issue of education at the forefront of the debates on African development Lamine Diallo Associate Professor Wilfrid Laurier University Canada The book is a welcome addition to discourses and analyses on education in sub Saharan Africa with reference to a postcolonial critique and the Millennium Development Goals framework on education in Africa Michael Tonderai Kariwo PhD Instructor and Research Fellow University of Alberta Canada

Broadcasting in Africa Series: Zimbabwe Sarah Chiumbu,2009-12-29 This report is the result of research that started in 2008 with the aim of collecting collating and writing up information about regulation ownership access performance as well as prospects for public broadcasting reform in Africa The Zimbabwe report is part of an 11 country survey of African broadcast media evaluating compliance with the agreements conventions charters and declarations regarding media that have been developed at regional and continental levels in Africa The research was carried out by Dr Sarah Chiumbu who has worked in different capacities in media in Zimbabwe and currently teaches media studies at Wits University in Johannesburg and edited by Jeanette Minnie and Hendrik Bussiek Imperial Investments Katja Uusihakala,2025-04-01 This book examines the legacy of a British child migration scheme that relocated British children to Southern Rhodesia between 1946 and 1962 with the aim of populating the colony with fresh white stock The selected children were resettled at Rhodesia Fairbridge Memorial College a boarding school established in a disused RAF airbase outside the town of Bulawayo This social engineering project sought to rescue children from what were predicted as undesirable futures in Britain and offer them a better life with prospects of social advancement Yet beyond individual salvation the scheme emigrated the children with the intention that they would help sustain the racially segregated colonial order Building on long term ethnographic research with former Rhodesian child migrants now living in the UK South Africa Australia and New Zealand this book delves into the children s unique experiences of migration displacement and resettlement By highlighting these enduring emotional social and political repercussions the author critically addresses how colonial histories matter in the present Through the lens of former child migrants whose kin relations were ruptured who were disciplined into silence and suppression and who have seen scant public recognition of their past this book sheds light on the formation of memory through its gaps and silences It contributes to our understanding of memory in relation to forced migration and displaced communities Civil Society in Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu,Dion Nkomo,Kirk Helliker,2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe s Matabeleland region an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state civil society dualist understanding it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society both analytically and empirically This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social political and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe and the region s troubled relations with the central state Historically it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region s resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along multiple fault lines including class and culture The relevance of understanding civil society in Matabeleland for Zimbabwe and Africa more widely is brought to the fore The book will be of interest and value to scholars of civil society politics and democratisation across the African continent
