Life-Writing from the Margins in Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, 2019-05-20 This book explores the unique contributions of various forms of post 2000 life writings such as the autobiography epistles and biographies to discourses about the nature and socio politics of what has become known as the Zimbabwean crisis c 2000 2009 Much of what has been written about the Zimbabwean crisis a decade long period of unprecedented economic collapse and political upheavals in the southern African country is strictly discipline specific and therefore limited to unidimensional modes of theorising the crisis s many and complex dimensions and dynamics In this context this book charts a paradigm shift in hermeneutic and epistemological approaches to comprehending the Zimbabwean crisis Life Writing from the Margins in Zimbabwe centres the experiences and memories of ordinary Zimbabweans in pluralizing modes of seeing and knowing the crisis The book argues that these life writings present a rich site for encountering versions of the crisis that relate in counter discursive ways to the dominant state authored narrative of the nation in crisis Oliver Nyambi s analysis contributes new ideas to ongoing debates about how cultural texts reflect on the postcoloniality of both power and experiences and negotiations of power in the context of crisis This book will be of interest to scholars and students of African literature Zimbabwean African studies postcolonial literature life writing and cultural studies

Fast Track Land Occupations in Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Sandra Bhatasara, Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2021-01-11 This book offers the first detailed scholarly examination of the nation wide land occupations which spread across the Zimbabwean countryside from the year 2000 and led to the state s fast track land reform programme In an innovative way it highlights the decentralized character of the occupations by recognizing significant spatial variation around a number of key themes including historical memory modes of mobilization and gender A case study of the land occupations in Mashonaland Central Province based on original research adds empirical weight to the argument In further identifying and understanding the specificities and complexities of the land occupations the book also frames them by way of a nuanced comparative historical analysis of the three zvimurenga It thus examines the land occupations referred to likely controversially as the third chimurenga with reference to the original anti colonial revolt from the 1890s the first chimurenga and the war of liberation in the 1970s the second chimurenga Further the book engages critically with the ruling party s chimurenga narrative and the hegemonic understanding of the land occupations within Zimbabwean studies This book is a crucial read for all scholars and students of post 2000 land and politics in Zimbabwe but also for those more broadly interested in historical comparative analyses of land struggles in Zimbabwe and beyond

Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe Kennedy Manduna, 2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe's extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country Indigenisation of Zimbabwe's extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities This policy however was a response to political economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe's government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000-2003 An intervention therefore which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption co optation and collusion which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power capital and minerals and placing extractive industry Indigenisation in capitalism this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining Indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries natural resource management African politics and African development

Displacement, Elimination and Replacement of Indigenous People Jairo Kangira, Artwell Nhemachena, 2019-02-19 Colonial scholars have taken immense pleasure in portraying Africans as possessed by spirits but as lacking possession and ownership of their resources including land Erroneously deemed to be thoroughly spiritually possessed but lacking senses of material possession and ownership of resources Africans have been consistently dispossessed and displaced from the era of enslavement through colonialism to the neocolonial era Delving into the historiography of dispossession and displacement on the continent of Africa and in particular in Zimbabwe this book also tackles contemporary forms of dispossession and displacement manifesting in the ongoing transnational corporations land grabs in Africa wherein African peasants continue to be dispossessed and displaced Focusing on the topical issues around dispossession and repossession of land and the attendant displacements in contemporary Zimbabwe the book theorises displacements from a decolonial Pan Africanist perspective and it also unpacks various forms of displacements corporeal noncorporeal cognitive spiritual genealogical and linguistic displacements among others The book is an excellent read for scholars from a variety of disciplines such as Geography Sociology Social Anthropology History Linguistics Development Studies Science and technology Studies Jurisprudence and Social Theory Law and Philosophy The book also offers intellectual grit for policy makers and implementers civil society organisations including activists as well as thinkers interested in decolonisation and transformation

Contested Criminalities in Zimbabwean Fiction Tendai Mangena, 2018-12-07 This book addresses the ways in which writers deploy the trope of contested criminality to expose Zimbabwe's socially and politically oppressive cultures in a wide range of novels and short stories published in English between 1994 and 2016 Some of the most influential authors that are examined in this book are Yvonne Vera Petina Gappah NoViolet Bulawayo Brian Chikwava Christopher Mlalazi Tendai Huchu and Virginia Phiri The author uses the Zimbabwean experience to engage with critical issues facing the African continent and the world providing a thoughtful reading of contemporary debates on illegal migration homophobia state criminality and gender inequalities The thematic focus of the book represents a departure from what Schulze Engler notes elsewhere as postcolonial discourse's habit of suggesting that the legacies of colonialism and the predominance of the global North are responsible for injustice in the Global South Using the context of Zimbabwe it is shown that colonialism is not the only image of violence and injustice but that there are other forms of injustice that are of local origin Throughout the book it is argued that in speaking about contested criminalities writers call attention to the fact that laws are violated some laws are unjust and some crimes are henceforth justified In this sense crime in justice and the law are portrayed as unstable concepts Transitional Justice and Socio-Economic Rights in Zimbabwe Prosper Maguchu, 2019-07-26 This book addresses the issue of corruption as a socio economic rights concern at a national level Zimbabwe's widespread corruption inhibited its development in all aspects It weakened institutions especially those called upon to arbitrate political and economic contests leading to potential human rights violations However Zimbabwe saw a change of government in November 2017 Due to this there seemed to be an opening to work towards reform in relation to the anti corruption architecture Specifically the new era provides an opportunity to review how accountability mechanisms including but not limited to amnesties truth commissions institutional reforms and prosecutions can address corruption as a socio economic rights violation As the new government still tries to address competing priorities many moving parts and various matrixes this volume in the International Criminal Justice Series provides a timely frame for revisiting the debate and developing the strategic thinking regarding transitional justice options in Zimbabwe It will be of great interest to practitioners policy makers scholars and students in the fields of anti corruption socio economic and human rights and transitional justice Prosper Maguchu is Visiting Assistant Professor at the Centre for the Politics of Transnational Law of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam The Netherlands Windows into Zimbabwe Franziska Kramer, Kramer Jurgen, 2019-12-18 Over the past fifteen years Weaver Press has published seven anthologies of some one hundred short stories giving voice to new and established Zimbabwean writers In Windows into Zimbabwe Franziska Kramer and Jrgen Kramer have selected from these anthologies twenty three stories which they consider the best or most representative of a particular period in the Zimbabwean narrative since 1980 They present the stories within sections which frame certain themes such as Independence Gukurahundi Land Gender Relations Money Matters Social Relations Exile and Resilience For the general reader Windows into Zimbabwe contains some wonderful stories rich in insight perception nuance and humour Writers such as Charles Mungoshi Petina Gappah NoViolet Bulawayo Valerie Tagwira and Shimmer Chinodya are included as well as relative newcomers with new perceptions and fresh voices The compilers have also provided an introductory overview casting light on the relationship between fiction and society and for teachers in schools colleges and universities each story is accompanied by explanatory notes questions and study tasks to further the readers understanding Windows into Zimbabwe will positively deepen your appreciation of the country and its people UNESCO and the Fate of the Literary Sarah Brouillette, 2019-09-10 A case study of one of the most important global institutions of cultural policy formation UNESCO and the Fate of the Literary demonstrates the relationship between such policymaking and transformations in the economy Focusing on UNESCO's use of books Sarah Brouillette identifies three phases in the agency's history and explores the literary and cultural programming of each In the immediate postwar period healthy economies made possible the funding of an infrastructure in support of a liberal cosmopolitanism and the spread of capitalist democracy In the decolonizing 1960s and 70s illiteracy and lack of access to literature were lamented as a book hunger in the developing world and reading was touted as a universal humanizing value to argue for a more balanced communications industry and copyright regime Most recently literature has become instrumental in city and nation branding that drive tourism and the heritage industry Today the agency largely treats high literature as a commercially self sustaining product for wealthy aging publics and fundamental policy reform to address the uneven relations that characterize global intellectual property creation is off the table UNESCO's literary programming is in this way highly suggestive A trajectory that might appear to be one of triumphant success literary tourism and festival programming can be quite lucrative for some people is also under a different light a story of decline
