Seinz, Food Production/management, 1986 Critical Biopolitics of the Post-Soviet Andrey Makarychev, Alexandra Yatsyk, 2019-11-29 This book is a critical attempt to cast a biopolitical gaze at the process of subjectification of Russia, Ukraine, Georgia and Estonia in terms of multiple and overlapping regimes of belonging, performativity and de bordering. The authors strive to go beyond the traditional understandings of biopolitics as a set of policies corresponding to the management and regulation of pre-existing populations. In their opinion, biopolitics might be part of nation building, a force that produces collective political identities grounded in the acceptance of sets of corporeal practices of control over human bodies and their physical existence. For the authors to look critically at this biopolitical gaze on the realm of the post-Soviet means also to rethink the correlation between the biopolitical vision of the post-Soviet and the biopolitical epistemology on the post-Soviet which would demand a new vocabulary. The critical biopolitics might be one of these vocabularies which would fulfill this request. Radical Christian Voices and Practice Zoë Bennett, David B.
