Life and Security in Rural Afghanistan Neamatollah Nojumi,Dyan Mazurana,Elizabeth Stites,2010-01-06 To access the maps mentioned in this book Click Here Despite the fall of the Taliban Afghanistan remains a country in dire need of strong international support Only with an understanding of the conditions in both urban and rural areas will the international community be able to offer aid and remain committed to long term development This fascinating and clearly written book mines a rich and unique array of data which was collected in rural areas of Afghanistan by an expert team of researchers to analyze countrywide trends in the relationship between human security and livelihoods The team s research and recommendations published here for the first time suggest that international assistance or national development strategies that ignore the long term developmental and structural goals and sideline the moderate elements of Afghan society will be doomed to failure The authors deeply informed policy recommendations will help to focus further action on vital issues such as co optation of aid by armed political groups water scarcity contamination and degradation of the environment education health care agriculture livestock and land health and justice A valuable resource for students policymakers donor governments and national and international organizations Life and Security in Rural Afghanistan opens a rare window into the otherwise hidden lives of the people of rural Afghanistan

International Measurement of Disability Barbara M. Altman, 2016-06-14 This volume provides an informed review of the accomplishments of the Washington Group on Disability Statistics WG in the provision of international data and statistics on disability It does so within the context of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities The volume includes a description of the development and testing of a short set of questions for Censuses now used in approximately 29 countries and recommended in the U N s Principles and Recommendations for Population and Housing Censuses The 2020 Round which includes disability as a core topic to be collected in censuses It discusses the experiences of several countries on the use of the WG questions and how this has impacted on national agendas in the area of disability It follows the development and testing of an extended set of questions for use in national surveys other than censuses and examines the challenges of translation and the importance of generating comparable question sets in different languages and within different cultures It studies the examination of cognitive testing techniques in a variety of countries and presents the results of the first round of censuses in 2010 in countries using the six question set The volume includes discussions of the new development of question modules on a broad range of child disability and functioning and the environmental contexts of participation that are part of the current work of the WG In addition it contains a reflection on the use of the WG s functionality approach to identifying disabilities by humanitarian agencies to identify disabilities in populations of displaced persons A thoughtful conclusion addresses what the development of cross nationally comparable data can mean for the improvement of circumstances for all persons with disabilities

Designing and Conducting Health Surveys Lu Ann Aday, Llewellyn J. Cornelius, 2011-01-20 Designing and Conducting Health Surveys is written for students teachers researchers and anyone who conducts health surveys This third edition of the standard reference in the field draws heavily on the most recent methodological research on survey design and the rich storehouse of insights and implications provided by cognitive research on question and questionnaire design in particular This important resource presents a total survey error framework that is a useful compass for charting the dangerous waters between systematic and random errors that inevitably accompany the survey design enterprise In addition three new studies based on national international and state and local surveys the UNICEF Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys California Health Interview Survey and National Dental Malpractice Survey are detailed that illustrate the range of design alternatives available at each stage of developing a survey and provide a sound basis for choosing among them Iraq Under Siege Anthony Arno, 2003 This updated study of the sanctions impact on Iraq now includes Bush's latest plans for invasion Health Promotion in Schools, Universities, Workplaces, and Communities Graça S. Carvalho, Emily Darlington, Teresa Vilaça, 2024-12-17 Health education well being improvement and advocacy are effective health promotion strategies among cutting edge Public Health practices Salutogenic perspectives rooted in ecological models have taken their rightful place to empower individuals and communities to change their life ecosystems and preserve and improve their health It is imperative to shift from targeting protective or risk factors which have linear causal relationships with health conditions and or comorbidities and encompass a systemic understanding of the role of health determinants in creating health Individual collective and structural ecological approaches can better reduce health inequities Moreover engaging the presumed beneficiaries from such strategies ensures that actual needs are identified and choices are context specific It improves the whole implementation process as well as its results Higher levels of participation such as co creation imply a bottom up voluntary collaborative process rooted in values of diversity mutual trust openness autonomy freedom and respect as well as shared expertise responsibility and decision making which are essential values in co creating health promotion The Department of State Bulletin, 1979 The official monthly record of United States foreign policy

Child Labour in Agriculture: The demand side Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, 2019-06-01 In 2013 a National Action Plan NAP was developed to eliminate the worst forms of child labour by 2016 which was subsequently revised and extended by the Ministry of Labour MOL until 2019 To support the Government of Lebanon in its efforts to address the problem of child labour FAO and UNICEF jointly commissioned the Consultation and Research Institute to undertake the present study Child labour in agriculture The demand side This study examines the characteristics and working conditions of children aged between 5 and 17 years who are working in the agriculture sector in Lebanon The research was based on 1 a desk review 2 a survey of 422 farmers who employ children and 3 in depth interviews with 90 participants including farmers who employ children shawishs coordinators of tented camps who recruit such children and children who work on farms Recommendations of the report are intended to feed into the implementation strategy of the NAP The Media and Aid in Sub-Saharan Africa Lena von Naso, 2018-02-05 News coverage on Africa is closely connected not only with how Western audiences see the continent but also with how a wide Western audience builds its opinion on issues that carry consequences for the public's and governments support and policy towards development aid The Western media reinforce a picture of a continent that drowns in chaos is dominated by conflicts diseases corruption and failed democratisation Whose interests lie behind that How does foreign news on sub Saharan Africa emerge which actors are relevant in its making and on the basis of what interests do these actors shape the coverage that is then presented as neutral information to a broad international audience Closely examining the relationship between foreign correspondents of international news media and humanitarian organisations Lena von Naso shows how the aid and media sectors cooperate in Africa in a unique way Based on more than 70 interviews with foreign correspondents and aid workers operating across Africa the book argues that the changing nature of foreign news and of aid is forcing them to form a deep co dependency that is having a serious and largely unnoticed effect on Western news coverage This comprehensive examination of a new paradigm will interest students and scholars of media and journalism African studies development and humanitarian studies and the aid and media communities operating across Africa Forensic Victimology and Femi(ni)cide Oscar Ivan Cortes-Perez,2024-12-12 This book the second volume in the set offers an in depth global analysis of femicide and feminicide from legal sociological and criminological perspectives It addresses the lack of coverage of forensic investigation case solvability forensic evidence and victimological approaches Volume II not only focuses on descriptive aspects of femicide and feminicide but also tackles practical issues related to access to justice and the importance of forensic methods in solving feminicide cases By expanding on current developments in gender based murder it integrates applied forensic and legal settings adopting a victim centered approach to explain contexts of victimization in court It is ideal for professionals working in legal and forensic settings towards gender based victimization It serves also as a handbook for students in areas related to Forensic areas such as legal and forensic medicine criminalistics criminology and criminal law

'Innocent Women and Children' R. Charli Carpenter,2016-05-23 Examining the influence of gender constructs on the international regime protecting war affected civilians R Charli Carpenter examines how in practice belligerents advocates and humanitarian players interpret civilian immunity so as to leave adult civilian men and older boys at grave risk in conflict zones Providing a wealth of ground breaking case studies the author argues that in order to understand the way in which laws of war are implemented and promoted in international society we must understand how gender ideas affect the principle of civilian immunity Each case study demonstrates the importance of assumptions about gender relations in shaping international politics and in developing a framework for incorporating an attention to gender into the often gender blind scholarship on international norms As such this book will be of interest to international relations theorists and to human rights scholars students and activists alike Reimagining Child Soldiers in International Law and Policy Mark A.

Drumbl,2012-01-26 Child soldiers are generally perceived as faultless passive victims This ignores that the roles of child soldiers vary from innocent abductee to wilful perpetrator This book argues that child soldiers should be judged on their actions and that treating them like a homogenous group prevents them from taking responsibility for their acts Young Children in Humanitarian and COVID-19 Crises Sweta Shah,Lucy Bassett,2023-11-30 The long term consequences of COVID 19 have been tough for children around the world but even more so for young children already in humanitarian crisis whether due to conflict natural disasters or economic and political upheaval This book investigates how organizations around the world responded to these dual challenges identifying solutions and learning opportunities to help to support young children in ongoing and future crises Drawing on research and voices from the Global South this book showcases innovations to mobilize new funds and re allocate existing resources to protect children during the pandemic It provides important evidence on understudied and overlooked vulnerable populations recognizing that researchers from the Global South are best positioned to fill these research gaps contextualize findings and support the uptake and adoption of recommendations by local decision makers and practitioners in those same contexts The findings in this book will be important for practitioners policy makers and donors working in or interested in humanitarian contexts on early childhood development or early childhood education The book will also be useful to students and researchers working in these fields The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
