Memory Lessons
 Jerald Winakur, 2009-01-01 The story of becoming a doctor and being a son Jerald Winakur is a doctor who cares for and about the elderly Dedicated and compassionate he s a surrogate son to many And yet all his years of service helping patients and their families adjust to the challenges of aging did not prepare him for becoming father to his own father who had become as needy as any child In Memory Lessons a tender and provocative book Dr Winakur writes about what it s like to be medical counselor to countless patients while disclosing his personal heartbreak at watching his 86 year old father descend into disability and dementia his mother at his side In both of these roles highly skilled professional and loving son he finds he is hard pressed to alter a course that devastates his dad and tears at his family But he does what he can A doctor who does his best to listen carefully to each patient in turn who attempts to confront every problem with as he says a reasonable fund of knowledge a modicum of common sense and a large dose of honesty Dr Winakur knows that there is much we can do by loving and listening We all search for answers we all want to do the right thing for our parents but few of us know what that right thing is Faced with caring for a growing sea of elders Dr Winakur reflects on his thirty years in the medical profession to consider the very personal and immediate questions asked by families every day What are we going to do with Dad Who will care for him and how These are urgent questions and they re faced head on in Memory Lessons with unflinching honesty hope and above all love
