scientists and researchers The Indian Institutes of Technology Seethalakshmi Srilal, A Jungle Named Academia Yukiko Inoue-Smith,2015-11-03 Professional ethics require continuous self improvement of professors through writing reading and learning no less than for students Promoting excellence in scholarship mentoring students in their research and effectively teaching are vital elements in our professional and personal growth However any one of these could be a full time job in itself To excel in each role it is essential for faculty members to reflect daily on our work What is the role of comparisons in this reflection Though our colleagues successes may suggest to us possibilities in our own work that we didn't know existed there is a danger that our neighbor's flowers will always seem more beautiful than our own We should let comparisons with others suggest new approaches to our goals but never focus on comparing our outcomes successes and failures with those of other people Instead we should focus on steadily improving our own levels of mastery of skills in scholarship and in work with students In American academia where both faculty members and students are ethnically and culturally diverse such that we will often find our assumptions challenged reflective thinking is even more essential than in a culturally homogeneous environment Hence reflective systematic approaches to daily practice in reading teaching and writing are powerful survival tactics and are likely to sustain one's vitality and productivity as a member of the academy

Disciplinary Literacy in Action ReLeah Cossett Lent,Marsha McCracken Voigt,2018-08-16 You wouldn't tell a heart surgeon to also do pediatrics so why would we tell content area educators they must do literacy Math history English and science teachers are passionate about their specialties and that's why authors Releah Lent and Marsha Voight designed a framework that keeps teachers subjects at the center of daily classroom life while also helping them pool strengths with colleagues Based on years of successful implementation this powerful PL cycle drops in seamlessly to any school setting so teachers schoolwide take on innovative practices of reading writing thinking and doing within their areas of expertise
