

To Kill a Mockingbird - Study Guide Questions

Directions- For the following questions write answers in the space provided. Citing the text (and thus page numbers) will help you support your answer. Answers need NOT be in complete sentences.

Chapter 1

"That was the summer Dill came to us."

1. Where does the novel take place? How would you describe the town in which the story takes place? What kind of community is it?
2. What does the children's father, Atticus Finch, do for a living? What do you make of this with respect to the type of community in which the Finches live?
3. From whose point of view will the story be told? So far, what can you tell about the narrator as a character?
4. Who is Calpurnia? Discuss the relationship she has with Jem, Scout, and Atticus.
5. During the summer when Dill arrives, the children play one game in particular. What game is this and why do they find it so entertaining?
6. What did Boo Radley do that got him into a bit of trouble with the law? What was his father's response? What eventually came of this incident?
7. According to Jem's description, what does Boo look like?
8. What act of "courage" on Jem's part ends the chapter? For what reason do you think he chose to do this?

Chapter 2

"We'll do like we always do at home," [Jem] said, "but you'll see - school's different."

education, 1983-06 Telling Tales Out of School Dale Davis, 2008-02 Finding himself unemployed Cyrus Henshaw does something he swore he would never do: he applies for and receives a teaching position. He is gradually honed into a teaching machine under the tough tutelage of a domineering principal, an eclectic group of faculty misfits, and a horde of unconcerned students. Telling Tales Out of School is a must have for anyone that has ever taught or thought of teaching. Not only will Dale Davis wit keep you laughing you'll also fall in love with all of the colorful characters. Prologue, 1988 King Lear William Shakespeare, 2003 Presents the original text of Shakespeare's play side by side with a modern version. The Routledge Companion to American Film History Pamela Robertson Wojcik, Paula J. Massood, 2025-02-12 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this collection brings together original essays that explore American film history from a fresh perspective. Comprising an introduction and 34 chapters written by leading scholars from around the globe and edited by Pamela Robertson Wojcik and Paula J. Massood this collection offers discussions of the American film industry from previously unexplored vantage points. Rather than follow a chronological format as with most film histories this Companion offers a multiplicity of approaches to historiography and is arranged according to often underdeveloped or overlooked areas in American film including topics such as alternate archives, hidden labor histories, style, racialized technologies, cinema's material cultures, spectators and fans, transnational film production, intermedial histories, history in and about films, and the historical afterlives of cinema. An exciting collection for serious film studies students and scholars interested in new perspectives and fresh approaches to thinking about and doing American film history

Honor Bound Stuart I. Rochester, Frederick T. Kiley, 1998 Honor

Bound is the result of a fruitful collaboration between Stuart I Rochester and Frederick Kiley In examining the lives of the prisoners in captivity it presents a vivid sensitive sometimes excruciating account of how men sought to cope with the physical and psychological torment of imprisonment under wretched and shameful conditions It includes insightful analyses of the circumstances and conditions of captivity and its varying effects on the prisoners the strategies and tactics of captors and captives the differences between captivity in North and South Vietnam and between Laos and Vietnam and analysis of the quality of the source materials for this and other works on the subject School Library Journal ,1985 Adolescence in the 21st Century Frances R. Spielhagen,Paul D. Schwartz,2013-12-01 What is wrong with young people today This question has captured the concerns of the older generation about the habits and attitudes of the adolescents in their midst The assumption is that there is indeed something wrong with young people Even Plato must have rolled his eyes as he relates his diatribe about the adolescents of Greece Is the current generation of adolescents less motivated or less focused than their parents How will they respond to the challenges facing them as they progress to adulthood When in fact do they become adults Although every generation draws upon their own unique and varied experiences the speed of our current societal changes has created a very different adolescent passage for contemporary youth than ever before The world as we know it has changed significantly and because of it much of today s youth is decidedly different from their parents Adolescence itself has shifted dramatically Young children are displaying adolescent behaviors well before they are ready to act on or understand their meaning and older adolescents are staying perpetual children As one writer put it the conveyor belt that transported adolescents into adulthood has broken down This book provides an interdisciplinary collection of research on the constants and challenges faced by young people today Failure to launch Social media Economic stagnation For the generation that is coming of age in a post terrorist world and in the midst of economic upheaval the challenges might seem insurmountable However in this book scholars from across the academy from sociology psychology education philosophy science and business explain how the young people today are responding to the constants of growth and change in adolescence and the unique challenges of life in the 21st century The Facts on File Companion to American Drama Jackson R. Bryer,Mary C. Hartig,2010 Features a comprehensive guide to American dramatic literature from its origins in the early days of the nation to the groundbreaking works of today s best writers High School Journalism Jim Streisel,2016-04-14 High school journalists share the same objectives as professional reporters finding the story writing the story and packaging the story so that it appeals to an audience Understanding how to best accomplish these objectives is key to the student on the newspaper yearbook or Web site staff but the fundamental art of storytelling and story presentation are not always at the center of high school journalism classes Student journalists must first understand that storytelling at its most basic level is about people and that understanding the audience is essential in deciding how to present the story This handbook for high school journalists and teachers offers practical tips for all elements of school journalism The author covers the essential components that students must understand information gathering writing standard and alternative coverage and packaging Students will find valuable information about identifying news interviewing research narrative writing style editing visual presentation and layout The book also covers the legal rights of student journalists objective vs opinion writing staff planning and organization and Web based journalism Each chapter includes study guides for practical applications of the concepts discussed Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
