

2. What does Scout learn about Boo from Miss Maudie? How does that compare to what Scout already believes?

Scout learns that Boo is alive; he hasn't been whisked out yet. His father was a foot-washing Baptist and very pious. His father believed the Bible to be word-for-word truth and he raised Boo to a very rigid and stern manner. The fact that Boo is alive confirms Scout's beliefs and she is more excited to know about him since he had been locked up for all these years.

3. Why does Atticus want the kids to stop playing the Boo Radley game? Do you agree or disagree with him?

Atticus says it's not respectful to Boo or the Radley's. Although it may seem strange to the kids, Boo's lifestyle makes sense to him. I believe people should be allowed to live as they desire, and have the freedom to do so. (Opinions of students may vary.)

Chapter 6

1. What "spectacle" involving Mr. Avery do the children witness? (Read over it again carefully)

Mr. Avery was peeing from his front porch, creating an arc of yellow liquid.

2. How does Jim lose his pants?

Jim pushes over to the Radley place to peer into a window and Mr. Radley comes out, so he runs away. One's pants snag on the fence and he loses them there.

Chapter 7

1. When Jim gets his pants back from the Radleys' fence, there is something strange has happened to them. What had happened to the pants?

His pants were folded and patched up by someone who did not know how to sew very well.

2. List the treasures that Jim & Scout find in the knot-hole that year.

Jim and Scout find gum, 2 Indian-head pennies, a ball of twine, 2 figures carved in soap, a spelling bee medal and a pocket watch.

3. What evidence can you find that tells the reader that Jim is beginning to understand more than Scout about Boo Radley?

Jim seems to want to tell Scout something, but he doesn't. He addresses the letter as "Dear Sir," and he was crying when he found out the knot hole in the tree was filled.

Why do you think Jim is understanding more than Scout?

Jim is older; he may be connecting the dots a little bit more than Scout and is slowly figuring out what is going on with Boo and the Radley's.

4. When Jim and Scout try to leave a letter for the person who's putting things in the tree, they are stopped. What stops them?

Someone had filled the knot hole in the tree with cement.

5. At the very end of the chapter, Scout observed that Jim has been crying. Why is he upset?

Jim seems to understand something about the tree being filled. Mr. Radley had made the tree he was dying. He had filled it in order to end the communication between the kids and Boo.
