activists and local people of the civil rights movement through an archive of Black and Brown avant gardism In the 1960s Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee SNCC activists engaged with people of color working in poor communities to experiment with creative approaches to liberation through theater media storytelling and craft making With a dearth of resources and an abundance of urgency SNCC activists improvised new methods of engaging with communities that created possibilities for unexpected encounters through programs such as The Free Southern Theater El Teatro Campesino and the Poor People's Corporation Reading the output of these programs Elizabeth Rodriguez Fielder argues that intimacy making became an extension of participatory democracy In doing so Rodriguez Fielder supplants the success failure binary for understanding social movements focusing instead on how care work aligns with creative production The Revolution Will Be Improvised returns to improvisation s roots in economic and social necessity and locates it as a core tenet of the aesthetics of obligation where a commitment to others drives the production and result of creative work Thus this book puts forward a methodology to explore the improvised often ephemeral works of art activism Theatre History Studies 2016, Vol. 35 Sara Freeman, 2016-12-06 Rosemarie K Bank and Michal Kobialka eds Theatre Performance Historiography Time Space Matter Reviewed by Danny Devlin Welcome to Oxnard Cristina Herrera, 2024-07-15 Michele Serros 1966 2015 is widely known for her groundbreaking book Chicana Falsa and Other Stories of Death Identity and Oxnard Despite her status as a major figure in Chicanx literature no scholar has written a book length examination of her body of poetry fiction and nonfiction until now Cristina Herrera also from Oxnard weaves in history autoethnography and literary analysis to explore Chicana adolescence and young womanhood with a focus on place making Factoring in location region and landscape Herrera asks what it means to grow up Chicana in settings that carry centuries of colonial violence segregation and everyday racism against Mexican American communities She contends that Serros used her hometown to broaden understandings of who and what constitutes Chicanx communities and identities By reading Serros s work in tandem with her lived experience in the same setting Herrera uncovers moments of adolescent subjectivity that could only be vocalized and constructed within this particular locale Herrera pushes against the tendency to separate the author from the text and argues for a spatial Entre Guadalupe y Malinche Inés understanding of Chicana adolescence race class and young womanhood Hernández-Ávila, Norma E.
