Arlene Cameron never wanted kids yet she gave birth to four. Who does that? The government handing out checks per child must have made those labor pains a little easier. She was a Christian woman who treated her children like the enemy. Could attempted murder, abuse, neglect, and mental illness all happen in one family? Why yes, yes it could. Because in Arlene's family that's exactly what happened. However, when she found Jesus for real, she decided she needed to make things right with them. But it was too late. They hated her. Well, not Jesus, just the kids. She wanted a family reunion with children who didn't feel they had a family. She would have to create one in order to reunite it. Her youngest ran away at seventeen, never to return. Her only son just wants to know who he is. Her oldest wants answers and her prized child has a secret that everyone knows but her. Pain caused by jealousy, deceit, and betrayal had torn them apart and the one person who could bring them back together is missing. It is known that there is a time for everything. Arlene had already used up her time to tear down and to kill when she destroyed her family. Now, however delusional it might be, she's hoping it will be a time to build up and a time to heal. The Protestant Magazine, 1915

When negotiation fails, mediation avails other moves for an amicable resolution. Whether you are a current or future mediator or a party to a conflict, this is your essential companion to the theory, concepts, and best practices of mediation. In a world ridden by social divisions, responsible resolution of conflicts is more timely than ever. What happens when parties are unable to negotiate an agreement together? The next move is to invite a third party to reset the negotiations, facilitate the exchanges, rebuild a working relationship, and empower the parties to explore the past, surface their present needs, invent, evaluate, and choose the best solutions for the future. Mediation: Negotiation by Other Moves brings decades of critical analysis and experience that the authors tested worldwide in international organizations, governments, NGOs, universities, and corporations. You will

Wotherspoon,1926 History of All Religions Samuel Mosheim Smucker,1881 Pursuit of Perfection Seth M. Simisi,2016-11-01 Pursuit of Perfection explores the significance of the perfection motif in the Epistle to the Hebrews It addresses the controversial interpretation of teleios perfection in Hebrews where this notion is so central to the argument of the book The investigation examines the meaning of perfection in an attempt to discover its significance on Hebrews theology The need for the study is the lack of adequate treatment of the subject in the last three decades The discussion focuses on the precise meaning to be attached to the notion of perfection and its significance for Hebrews interpretation Through an exploration of major interpretative approaches to the notion of perfection and its usages in classical world Second Temple Judaism and New Testament literature especially Hebrews The author argues that the notion of perfection has an eschatological significance and is linked to better provisions of the new covenant which guarantee believers salvation and eternal inheritance The author sums up his argument that the call to pursue the goal of perfection is a call for commitment to the gospel message as Christians of all ages follow the example of the Christ the one who endured suffering of the cross and its despised shame in order to bring many followers to their future eternal glory The Realm of Redemption J. Robert Nelson,2017-06-21 Scarcely any concept of Christian doctrine in the present time stands so greatly in need of clarification from the ground up as that of the Church It is a fact to be welcomed that Mr Nelson has ventured to fix his eyes upon the problem of the Church from both sides namely from that of historical Biblical research and that of theological reflection Essentially this book is a circumspect and deliberate presentation of those previously produced writings which have worked out the questions sharply and taken a critical position towards the results Therefore it will be welcomed by all those who are participating in ecumenical discussions as a comprehensive survey of the whole area of contemporary study of the Church doing justice to both Anglo Saxon and Continental European research From Foreword
