Pennsylvania Twenty five miners working the afternoon shift were now caught in a horrific explosion at Texas Gulf Sulphur's new Cane Creek Potash Mine Located in the scenic red rock canyon country just west of Moab Utah along the banks of the Colorado River the mine site quickly became the scene of an intense mine rescue operation With no knowledge of any survivors the race against time was set in full motion as expert mine rescue teams battled to overcome smoke gases and groundwater pouring down the mine shaft which was as deep as two Empire State Buildings stacked on top of each other Disaster at Cane Creek is thoroughly spellbinding as it shares history's stage during the iconic 1960's with other relevant back and side stories during the Kennedy Administration Author Kymberly Mele masterfully weaves together this powerful drama putting the reader on the scene of this true life story as events unfold She conveys the essence of the people involved communicates what they endured and captures the sheer will determination and fight for survival that is both riveting and inspirational

Last Man Out Melissa Fay Greene, 2015-09-24 The deepest coal mine in North America was notoriously unpredictable One late October evening in 1958 it bumped its rock floors heaving up and smashing into rock ceilings A few miners staggered out most of the 174 on shift did not Nineteen men were trapped plunged into darkness hunger thirst and hallucination As days and nights passed the survivors began to hope for death by gas rather than from thirst Above ground journalists and families stood in despairing vigil as rescuers brought out scores of the dead The hope of finding life underground faded and families made funeral preparations Then a miracle Rescuers stumbled across a broken pipe leading to a cave of survivors then a second group was discovered A media circus followed Ed Sullivan then the state of Georgia invited survivors to visit Publicity politics and segregation sorted the men differently than they had ordered themselves Underground the one black survivor nursed a dying man in Atlanta Governor Marvin Griffin said I will not shake hands with a Negro If every great writer has one tale of peril heroism and survival Last Man Out is Melissa Fay Greene s Using long lost stories and interviews with survivors Greene has reconstructed the drama of their struggle to stay alive
