Case,2018-07-10 A groundbreaking history of the Big Questions that dominated the nineteenth century In the early nineteenth century a new age began the age of questions In the Eastern and Belgian questions as much as in the slavery worker social woman and Jewish questions contemporaries saw not interrogatives to be answered but problems to be solved Alexis de Tocqueville Victor Hugo Karl Marx Frederick Douglass Fyodor Dostoevsky Rosa Luxemburg and Adolf Hitler were among the many who put their pens to the task The Age of Questions asks how the question form arose what trajectory it followed and why it provoked such feverish excitement for over a century Was there a family resemblance between questions Have they disappeared or are they on the rise again in our time In this pioneering book Holly Case undertakes a stunningly original analysis presenting chapter by chapter seven distinct arguments and frameworks for understanding the age She considers whether it was marked by a progressive quest for emancipation of women slaves Jews laborers and others a steady inexorable march toward genocide and the Final Solution or a movement toward federation and the dissolution of boundaries Or was it simply a farce a false frenzy dreamed up by publicists eager to sell subscriptions As the arguments clash patterns emerge and sharpen until the age reveals its full and peculiar nature Turning convention on its head with meticulous and astonishingly broad scholarship The Age of Questions illuminates how patterns of thinking move history Educational Research R. Goyal, 2007 Coming Full Circle Laurence M. Hauptman, 2019-04-11 The disastrous Buffalo Creek Treaty of 1838 called for the Senecas removal to Kansas then part of the Indian Territory From this low point the Seneca Nation of Indians which today occupies three reservations in western New York sought to rebound Beginning with events leading to the Seneca Revolution in 1848 which transformed the nation s government from a council of chiefs to an elected system Laurence M Hauptman traces Seneca history through the New Deal Based on the author s nearly fifty years of archival research interviews and applied work Coming Full Circle shows that Seneca leaders in these years learned valuable lessons and adapted to change thereby preparing the nation to meet the challenges it would face in the post World War II era including major land loss and threats of termination Instead of emphasizing American Indian decline Hauptman stresses that the Senecas were actors in their own history and demonstrated cultural and political resilience Both Native belief in the form of the Good Message of Handsome Lake and Christianity were major forces in Seneca life women continued to play important social and economic roles despite the demise of clan matrons right to nominate the chiefs and Senecas became involved in national and international competition in long distance running and in lacrosse The Seneca Nation also achieved noteworthy political successes in this period The Senecas resisted allotment and thus saved their reservations from breakup and sale They recruited powerful allies including attorneys congressmen journalists and religious leaders They saved their Oil Spring Reservation winning a U S Supreme Court case against New York State on the issue of taxation and won remuneration in their Kansas Claims case These efforts laid the groundwork for the Senecas postwar endeavor to seek compensation before the Indian Claims Commission and pursuit of a series of land claims and tax lawsuits against New York State

Early Christian Widows and their Social-economic Situation, Support, and Contribution to the Church Rebekah Yurong Zhao, 2025-10-02 In the first consideration of widows in early Christianity Rebekah Yurong Zhao explores the social economic situation of widows their means of support and their contributions to the church Through literary analysis of three different genres of early Christian texts narrative instruction and apologetic texts Zhao argues that historical conclusions can be drawn especially when set against the cultural backgrounds in both the Roman world and ancient Judaism By exploring the situation for widowed women in these cultures and analysing significant texts from the first two centuries of the church including 1 Timothy the Shepherd of Hermas Ignatius Polycarp Tertullian and the Apologists Zhao seeks to answer three key questions what status did widows hold in early Christian society who precisely comprised their support network and what contributions did they make to the church Ultimately this volume examines how support for widows became an iconic practice in early Christianity whilst also dispelling the stereotype of the widow as merely a passive recipient of care

The Afghan-Central Asia Borderland Suzanne Levi-Sanchez, 2016-07-15 Based on extensive long term fieldwork in the borderlands of Afghan and Tajik Badakhshan this book explores the importance of local leaders and local identity groups for the stability of a state's borders and ultimately for the stability of the state itself It shows how the implantation of formal institutional structures at the border a process supported by United Nations and other international bodies can be counterproductive in that it may marginalise local leaders and alienate the local population thereby increasing overall instability The study considers how in this particular borderland where trafficking of illegal drugs weapons and people is rampant corrupt customs and border personnel and imperfect new institutional arrangements contributed to a complex mix of oppression hidden protest and subtle resistance which benefitted illicit traders and hindered much needed humanitarian work The book relates developments in this region to borderlands elsewhere especially new borders in the former Soviet bloc and argues that local leaders and organisations should be given semi autonomy in co ordination with state border forces in order to increase stability and the acceptance of the state Anthropological Practice Judith Okely,2020-05-15 Anthropologists are increasingly pressurised to formulate field methods for teaching Unlike many hypothesis driven ethnographic texts this book is designed with the specific needs of the anthropology student and field researcher in mind with particular emphasis on the core anthropological method long term participant observation Anthropological Practice explores fieldwork experiences unique to anthropology and provides the context by which to explain and develop practice based and open ended methodology It draws on dialogues with over twenty established and younger anthropologists whose fieldwork spans the late 1960s to the present day taking place in locations as diverse as Europe India Malaysia Indonesia Africa Iran Afghanistan North and South America Revealing first hand and hitherto unrecorded aspects of fieldwork Anthropological Practice provides critical systematic ways to enhance anthropological and alternative knowledge It is an essential text for anthropology students and researchers and for all disciplines concerned with ethnography Interviewees include Paul Clough Roy Gigengack Louise de la Gorgendi re Suzette Heald Michael Herzfeld Signe Howell Felicia Hughes Freeland Ignacy Marek Kaminski Margaret Kenna Raquel Alonso Lopez Malcolm Mcleod Brian Morris H l ne Neveu Kringelbach Akira Okazaki Joanna Overing Jonathan Parry Carol Silverman Mohammad Talib Nancy Lindisfarne Tapper Sue Wright Helena Wulff Joseba Zulaika First Corinthians- Everyman's Bible Commentary Robert Hughes,1985-06-08 Designed for laypeople this commentary deals seriously with the biblical text without being overly technical Introductory information doctrinal themes problem passages and practical applications are examined The Responsible Shareholder Bottomley, Stephen,2021-11-09 Examining the role of shareholders in modern companies this timely book argues that more should be expected of shareholders both morally and legally It explores the privileged position of shareholders within the corporate law system and the unique rights and duties awarded to them in contrast to other corporate actors Introducing the concept of shareholders as responsible agents whose actions and inactions should be judged on that basis Stephen Bottomley unites a number of distinct corporate governance discussions including stewardship activism and shareholder liability Making Language Matter Deborah J. Vause,Julie S. Amberg,2013 Now adopted by over 40 states the Common Core State Standards provide a clear and consistent framework for public school systems as they develop student learning goals that define the path to readiness for college careers and informed citizenship While each state is developing its own procedures for adoption of the Standards individual teachers will continue to hold the ultimate responsibility for devising lesson plans and tailoring instruction to meet these benchmarks Making Language Matter will help prospective and practicing teachers develop lessons to meet the benchmarks enumerated in the Standards for the English Language Arts categories language speaking and listening writing and reading A timely text for literacy education courses it explores language topics within these categories and suggests pedagogical approaches and activities for use in 9 12 language arts classrooms Using a linguistics approach to unify the study of all the language arts it engages readers in learning how to help students make purposeful language choices essential for both academic and workplace success
