Gender Representations in Commercials - Original and Translation Stavroula (Stave) Vergopoulou, 2024-07-26 Within the interdisciplinary framework of gender translation and advertising this study investigates gender representations of fictional characters in original and translated audiovisual advertisements Stavroula Stave Vergopoulou discusses various manifestations of sexism on verbal and or nonverbal levels She also explores the ways in which translators can reduce or mitigate linguistic sexism in advertising translation to foster gender fair language use Her research draws on sociocultural linguistics and particularly on a social constructionist approach to gender identities The exploration of the relationships of gender and advertising and the discussion of the key concept of translation form the theoretical basis for the empirical research work For this English and German commercials from 2017 to 2020 have been examined along with their English German and Greek target texts Aspects of meaning-making through translation Sidiropoulou Maria, Hatzidaki Anna, Kefala Stavroula, Gogonas Nikos, Korda Diamantoula, Lavidas Nikolaos, Gioti Ioanna, 2025-05-07 The book addresses an audience with no prior knowledge of the intricacies of translation practice and allows a rather pervasive view into issues arising in the study of translation It shows how the study of translation may capture a reader's attention and what scholarly issues it may give rise to It tackles systemic functional cognitive and societal aspects of the transfer phenomenon between English and Greek from both a synchronic and a diachronic perspective It starts with pragmatic perspectives of meaning making moves to cognitive aspects of translation and interpreting goes on with aspects of tourism translation and globalization and ends up with diachronic perspectives to gender in translation and diachronic aspects of the history of translation in the West It is a collaborative work of the translation team of the Department of English Language and Literature National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and owes a lot to insights gained by the authors' interaction with undergraduate and postgraduate translation students of the Department which is always insightful and productive Sex Ecologies Stefanie Hessler, 2021-11-23 The first compendium of writing and art to present the case for the role of sex in environmental and social justice Sex Ecologies explores pleasure affect and the powers of the erotic in the human and more than human worlds Arguing for the positive and constructive role of sex in ecology and art practice these texts and artistic research projects attempt nothing short of reclaiming the sexual from Western erotophobia and heteronormative narratives of nature and reproduction The artists and writers set out to examine queer ecology through the lens of environmental humanities investigating the fluid boundaries between bodies both human and nonhuman between binary conceptions of nature as separate from culture and between disciplines In newly commissioned texts from such writers as Mel Y Chen and Jack Halberstam and a selection of influential essays including an annotated version of Audre Lorde's The Uses of the Erotic: The Erotic as Power as well as images and sketches from works in progress by a diverse group of artists Sex Ecologies combines insights from the fields of art environmental humanities ecofeminism gender studies science technology political science and indigenous studies Sex Ecologies which accompanies an exhibition of the same name at Kunsthall Trondheim emerges from an arts driven research project collaboratively developed between the art center and the Seed Box environmental humanities laboratory Conceived not as a result but as a seed arising from this transdisciplinary fertilization the volume presents a case for the role of sex in environmental and social justice Copublished with Kunsthall Trondheim Norway and the Seed Box Sweden Slut Narratives in Popular Culture Laurie McMillan, 2024-08-19 Slut Narratives in Popular Culture explores representations of slut shaming and the term slut in U S popular media 2000-2020 It argues that cultural narratives of intersectional gender identities are gradually but unevenly shifting to become more progressive and sex positive Moving beyond prior research on slut shaming which exposes problematic connotations between women's morality and a sexual purity associated with White economic privilege this book examines how narratives that perpetuate slut shaming are both contested and reinscribed through stories we circulate It emphasizes effects of twenty first century developments in digital communication and entertainment The rapid evolution of genres combined with increased access to the consumption and production of texts stimulates more diverse storytelling The book's analyses demonstrate twenty first century changes in how slut shaming is depicted and understood while encouraging consumers and producers of pop culture to attend to cultural narratives as they reify or challenge the subordination of vulnerable populations Aimed primarily at an academic audience this book will also engage general readers interested in intersectional feminism pop culture new media digital technologies and sociolinguistic change Readers will become more adept at deconstructing assumptions embedded in popular media especially narratives informing slut shaming Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Stage Actresses Wikipedia contributors, Focus On: 100 Most Popular Actresses from New York City Wikipedia contributors, The Spectator ,1907 Son of Classics and Comics George Kovacs,C.
