Welcome To Canada Guide:

Welcome to Canada David Carpenter, 2009 David Carpenter's stories often begin in a comic mode and the voices of the characters their accents tones and peculiar vocabularies are brilliantly caught But what begins as comedy can frequently veer into fierceness farce regret or indignation On these unpredictable journeys we meet an amorous Texas millionaire and his native fishing guide a cow named Turkle a farm girl who talks to bears a kokum who speaks with departed spirits a German scholar with a taste for Saskatoon berries an all Jewish football team that takes a chance on a goy an aboriginal folksinger who finds love in a laundry dryer and loses it in a motel a monster northern pike named Adolph a shy roaring twenties photographer who hates dogs and loves peppermints Most of Carpenter's characters are city people who find themselves out in the bush with the bear deer elk and wolves and sometimes even Windigo Carpenter has a strong relationship with the wild country of the northern boreal forest the Saskatchewan prairies and the Alberta foothills His prose is protean It shifts into the minds and the voices of his characters and gathers the reader along to unexpected destinations grief joy or a nicely shaded triumph often involving love escape or an unexpected kind of revelation Since 1975 with the exception of four years split between Toronto and Vancouver Island Carpenter has lived and written in Saskatoon He has been nominated and won numerous literary accolades for his work including fiction nonfiction and poetry Until recently he was fiction editor for Grain Magazine

Canada: The State of the Federation, 2012 Loleen Berdahl, André Juneau, Carolyn Hughes Tuohy, 2015-07-03. Regional resource disparities and the tensions they generate are a perennial Canadian topic. This edition of Canada: The State of the Federation presents essays on regions, resources, and the resiliency of the Canadian federal system. Contributors consider questions such as: to what extent do Canada's natural resource industries benefit the Canadian economy? Do Canada's federal institutions hinder or promote the ability of the economy to respond to global economic shifts? Do current intergovernmental structures allow for constructive dialogue about national policy issues? In responding to these and related questions, many of the authors touch on energy issues. Others consider the importance of functional institutions in a federal or multilevel context as an essential requirement for the effective resolution of issues. Together, the volume raises questions about the relationship of state and society, the importance of identity, trust, and moral legitimacy for the operation of our federal institutions, and the extent to which federal institutions are reinforced or placed under stress by societal structures. The theme of this volume was triggered by Richard Simeon, the outstanding scholar of federalism who passed away in October 2013, and it is dedicated in his honour.
