The Missing Teacher A Memoir:

The Missing Teacher Lani V. Cox, 2015-01-16 You've probably heard of Waldorf but most people don't know what it is. Based on Rudolf Steiner's spiritual philosophy and the idea of giving children a holistic education it's one of the fastest growing alternative educational systems in the world. I entered the fairy tale world of Waldorf with the best intentions, completed my training and began teaching at a fledgling school. It was not the positive and nurturing environment I'd expected and two years later when it became apparent I didn't fit in, I was fired. I was devastated and lost my faith. In the following years I went looking for myself and found clues in the most unlikely places: between root beer and burgers, a shoebox and a book on tape. The Missing Teacher explores the personality of education, looks into one of the most controversial education systems, and is a story about the education of self.

Yeshua a Personal Memoir of the Missing Years of Jesus Stan I. S. Law, 2006 As the story unfolds, Satia, the son of a wealthy caravan owner, meets the 12-year-old Yeshua (Jesus) as the latter flees in rebellion from his Essene teachers. The two become fast friends and stay that way for the 18 years not covered in the Bible: the years between the finding of Jesus in the Temple and the beginning of his short ministry.

A Teacher's Memoirs Ang-Lee Lai Kuin, 2015-12-19 Hwa Chong Junior College, established in 1974, is one of the top junior colleges in Singapore. Its bilingual English and Chinese and bicultural junior college programme prepares enrolled full-time 16 to 18-year-old students for the Singapore Cambridge GCE A-level examinations for entry into the top local and prestigious foreign universities such as the Oxbridge universities in the UK and the Ivy League universities in the US. The College attracts the best local students after their GCE O-level examinations, top-tier foreign students, the Ministry of Education's ASEAN Scholars, as well as other sponsored scholarship students from China and India. This book of memoirs covers my years at Hwa Chong as a pioneer teacher from its very first year, shares with all my Hwa Chong colleagues, students, Councillors, and students past, current, and future the history and traditions of the College, whose deep-rooted ethos and spirit help it to consistently deliver many top students and scholars into the best local and most prestigious universities overseas. These memoirs, written on the occasion of the College's 40th Anniversary, also record and share the travails and distressing times of the College as it was forced to spend several years on the move in temporary premises. The memoirs also share the triumphs of the College's students and student Councillors as they excel not only in their studies but also in various Co-Curricular Activities and in leadership appointments while enjoying their College life.

Memoirs of a Strange Little Girl Sara McGrath, 2010-11-08 My mother named me after Bob Dylan's Sara, his song of loss and bittersweet memory. The song could have set the tune for my life with cries of Gypsy violin and harmonica. Instead, it gave me solace, a sad music place where I felt at home. I wrote my memoirs after my real dad died. His death marked the end of the saddest era of my life. I was born to a teenaged drug addict and raised by a sadistic young man who I called Dad, but he wasn't my dad. He was a bogey man.

Memoirs of a Certain Sansei: A Japanese American Mother and Teacher Elsie Higa, 2015-01-28 For more than four decades author and teacher Elsie Higa has inspired thousands of students many of whom write complimentary notes to her In Memoirs of a Certain Sansei she shares her stories including her parenting secrets This memoir also springs from the comments of her students and her responses to them These two forces inspired Higa to combine her knowledge of parenthood with her teaching expertise in a warm and wise narrative that parents teachers students and children will learn from Without guidance from Sensei I would not be where I am today alumnus Higa set out to share parental and scholarly wisdom and she achieved far more through stories packed with illumination on life in general They are beautifully written fast paced entertaining and enlightening Any reader in search of tips for better living effective relationships and personal reward will enjoy and profit from this book Dr Doris M Ching Vice President Emeritus Student Affairs University of Hawaii

Memoirs of a Substitute Teacher Paul Kritzeck, 2014-01-14 Over the course of being employed as a substitute teacher the author compiled a collection of classroom escapades and antics and bound them into his memoir Inside the reader will come across a well balanced book consisting of humorous episodes along with a peppering of frustrating scenarios that emerged on any given day One occurrence was when two kids tried to crush a trapped classmate between the wall and the piano they used as a wedge Or when two brave nerds targeted a jock during dodgeball only the letterman wound up taking both out in the span of two seconds Also the reaction the author received from a seventh grade class when he introduced them to his collection of Garbage Pail Kids collector cards

Memoirs of an Imaginary Friend Matthew Dicks, 2012-08-21 A tale imparted from the perspective of long time imaginary friend Budo traces his awareness of his advancing age and constant thought of the inevitable day when eight year old Max an autistic boy will stop believing in him

Memoirs of a Shop Teacher (B/W Version) Stanley Sipka, 2020-10-15 The book is about me and my interaction with students faculty and everyone else I want to move through my life from birth to the present The 85 years of life have been eventful and I am grateful for those who helped me arrive at this point in life I want to convey the events that guided me through my early years grade high school Army marriage college teaching and retirement Each day was a learning experience The goal was to make teaching more rewarding to the students Many assignments that are included were not present when I started in 1965 My work during the summers helped me understand the innovations NC numerical control CNC computer numerical control EDM electric discharge machining That learning helped me convey that knowledge to the students Included are jobs made by the students that were designed to provide similar experiences found in the machining industry There are stories about students and teachers that filled my days as a teacher Lastly there are assignments a person can try My only comment is don't do the last two because they are difficult That was a favorite comment to get students to work the difficult problems

Jim Taylor's Memoirs of the 28th Battalion Timothy E Taylor, 2022-10-26 Jim Taylor's Memoirs of the 28th Battalion An American Korean Campaign By Timothy E Taylor As a Black man in twentieth century America Jim Taylor faced racial divides his entire life but he loved his life nevertheless Serving in the US Army during the Korean Campaign Jim was assigned to a segregated regiment of Black men with White officers in command Just like any other soldier Jim witnessed the deaths of young men who will not be forgotten In that campaign he also witnessed the propaganda which hurt the people trying to love their home the USA A proud American Jim shared many stories of perseverance and patriotism with his family and those experiences are recounted here

The Life of Frederick Maehle from His Memoirs Gerda Freedheim,2020-12-10 This is a story of a family at least a part of it It is based on the memoirs of the author s grandfather Frederick Maehle who was born in 1871 Frederick known as Fritz lived with his family in the city of Lodz During WWI when Lodz was under siege the schools were closed his work was erratic so he would tell his children stories about his ancestors his childhood and his youth He began his memoirs in 1913 Although he ended writing the memoirs in 1938 his son Kola continued them from notes and journal entries he found after the war The last journal entry is dated May 20 1940 Kola s wife Hilde translated most of the manuscript Gerda who adapted the memoir had Ursula translate the remainder Frederick s writings are painfully intimate in which he reveals his heart and his soul This story is not one of happiness and prosperity it is a story of survival of a family devastated and fragmented by World War I then the Great Depression and finally WWII

Karl Marx; Biographical Memoirs Wilhelm Liebknecht,1901

Memoirs of Innocence & Experience Innocent (Hondo) Chirawu,2011-01-20 I was born Innocent Murambiwa Hondo on 11 January 1961 in Chinyemba Village Glendale Mazoe District of the then Rhodesia I had an official change of my maternal surname Hondo to my paternal surname Chirawu and acquired the middle name Blessed in 1983 Since my childhood I have always aspired to utilise every opportunity that helps me help my fellowman best I was brought up in colonial Rhodesia which was dominated by divide and rule politics in favour of the white minority population As a result the black child s school was far inferior compared to his white counterpart s There was also a deliberate public policy to provide the average black child with an education only adequate for him to perform a subordinate role to his white master and only 12% of the black children were expected to proceed to secondary education These would form the elite part of the society taking up occupations like nurses teachers clerks agricultural extension officers and others I was very fortunate to fall into the category of the elite group who made it through the bottleneck system into secondary education Salvation Army s Howard Secondary School which was a syndicate examination centre for The University of Cambridge whereby GCE O Level examinations were set and marked at that reputable university I sat for those Exams in November December 1978 and passed with grades B and C in 8 subjects including Maths Science and English thus obtaining a University of Cambridge GCE certificate in First Division I later on proceeded to a private institution Ranche House College where I did my English and Sociology at Advanced level My first job after school was working as a bank clerk for Standard Chartered Bank from May 1980 to Sept 1981 I then intercalated from banking to study for my Diploma in Theology at the International Bible Training Centre Lagos in 1982 resumed banking for a stint then did my initial teacher training from 1984 to 1987 I then taught Woodwork RE and English in Zimbabwean secondary schools for 11 years during which period I rose through the ranks of being an ordinary class teacher head of department Religious Education English and deputy head teacher While in full time teaching I managed to study for a degree in educational administration planning and policy studies as well as a part one in BA Media studies through Zimbabwe Open University the latter which was interrupted by socio politico economic problems in Zimbabwe that time I was doing all those study programmes paying the fees from my salary and without a penny of assistance from the government In Zimbabwe switching from being a teacher to being a journalist for the independent press was and still is like jumping from the frying pan into the fire In April 1999 I then joined the Daily News the then Zimbabwe s once most popular and best seller tabloid later banned and defunct from 2003 2010 where I served as a subeditor cum proofreader until the time I migrated to England in December 2001 By the time I left Zimbabwe there was every sign that the future of my colleagues our newspaper and I was very gloom After the bombings of our offices and printing press our then editor in chief Geoff Nyarota announced that due to the political situation and the hostility that time we were experiencing he could not guarantee our safety anymore So I had no choice but sell my family property buy a ticket flew into self exile in England and I have always lived here since then Later on I called my family over to join my stay in the country My grandmother my childhood mentor

Memoirs of an Italian Geek R. Santi, 2003-08 Memoirs of an Italian Geek is a collection of stories that tell the ongoing tale of the childhood and adolescent escapades of a third generation Italian American Geek as he deals with the tribulations of life technology and friendship throughout the last few decades of the twentieth century Starting with his earliest memories of the golden years before school began and on through to his graduation from high school the endless impact of his friends and family influences continue to keep our Geek in a constant state of change and often confused Dealing with personal issues and other cataclysmic changes our Geek learns that not everything can be prepared for and sometimes the most meaningful changes occur without warning Confronted with the challenges of academic achievements or lack thereof and endless extracurricular chaos usually inspired by girls our Geek fights a constant battle between trying to stay afloat on the seas of trouble childhood and not drowning in a coming of age riptide Memoirs of an Italian Geek is the tale of this journey through churning and often unfriendly waters Western

Teacher, 1914 My Memoirs Bette Williams, 2011-12-08 This book is the story of my life It is for my children grandchildren and great grandchildren to remember me by I have also added some of the little stories I have written over the years for their enjoyment Memoirs of a Gaijin Benjamin Hesse, 2007-05 Hello from Japan Not much new here My four year olds attacked me my crazy female stalkers jumped on the desk and professed their love for me my depressed coworkers fist fought each other at the all you can drink karaoke bar and I have no idea what I ate yesterday but it was uncooked and squishy Pretty much the usual What s new from home Ben took the teaching job in Japan because he wasn t quite ready to figure out what he wanted to do with his life Instead his efforts were put towards figuring out his new students coworkers and dinner He is a gaijin the Japanese word for foreigner From festivals and temples to bicycles and cleaning supplies

Memoirs of a Gaijin Emails from Japan is the one year collection of emails and journals that chronicle Ben s experiences in the comedic and confusing country of Japan A witty honest work Ben Hesse s Memoirs of a Gaijin should be a required read for those college grads who are contemplating the increasingly popular first real life step of teaching English abroad C J Renner author of Tried to Say Memoirs of an Indian Woman Shudha Mazumdar, Geraldine Hancock Forbes, 2015-03-04 This vivid memoir recounts the experience of Shudha Mazumdar a woman born at the turn of the century to Indian parents whose ideas on child rearing differed greatly Her father a wealthy Europeanized Zamindar tried to instill Western values while Shudha s mother emphasized the traditional even going as far as arranging a marriage for her daughter when she was thirteen Although true to Indian traditions Shudha eventually manifested her father s influence by becoming a published writer by becoming a member of a number of social service organizations and by serving as the Indian Delegate to the International Labour Organization Mathematics Teacher Educators' Intimate Scholarship Elizabeth Suazo-Flores, Signe E. Kastberg, Melva R. Grant, Olive Chapman, 2025-08-11 This book contains an Open Access chapter Mathematics Teacher Educators Intimate Scholarship gathers the work of US based scholars working in mathematics teacher education using self based methodologies to explore knowing and doing in relation to the process of becoming mathematics teacher educators Beth McCord's Memoirs Alan McCord, 2018-11-14 This book is comprised of a set of memoirs describing the life of a woman who was part of The Greatest Generation Individual chapters describe her experiences growing up during the Great Depression working as a social worker at a youth settlement house being engaged to a soldier during World War II making their way as a young couple following the war raising two sons and serving as a public school teacher for 24 years She also reflects on the life of her husband of 62 years Transforming Teacher Preparation Through Identity, Development, and Effective Technologies Sargent, Denise LaVoie, Murphy, Kristin M., 2024-08-09 In the landscape of global education there is a dire shortage of teachers exacerbated by declining enrollment rates and a mass exodus of educators particularly in urban settings UNESCO s revelation that millions of teachers are needed by 2030 underscores the critical gaps in our ability to provide quality education As the education sector grapples with these challenges Transforming Teacher Preparation Through Identity Development and Effective Technologies offers valuable solutions This compilation responds to the pressing need for a paradigm shift in teacher preparation offering insights recommendations and diverse perspectives from experts worldwide to address the current crisis and shape the future of education Teacher shortages and diminishing enrollment rates coupled with the departure of educators pose a significant threat to the quality of education globally Urban areas in particular witness a disproportionate exodus of educators creating disparities that impact the most vulnerable students The COVID 19 pandemic has further emphasized the need for innovative technology driven solutions in teacher preparation As schools deal with these issues the imperative is to not only reflect on the current state of teacher preparation but also to set forth recommendations that will transform the field ensuring a robust and resilient education system for the years to come
