Top 100 Food Plants Ernest Small,2009 This beautifully illustrated book reviews scientific and technological information about the world's major food plants and their culinary uses An introductory chapter discusses nutritional and other fundamental scientific aspects of plant foods The 100 main chapters deal with a particular species or group of species All categories of food plants are covered including cereals oilseeds fruits nuts vegetables legumes herbs spices beverage plants and sources of industrial food extracts Information is provided on scientific and common names appearance history economic and social importance food uses including practical information on storage and preparation as well as notable curiosities There are more than 3000 literature citations in the book and the text is complemented by over 250 exquisitely drawn illustrations Given the current alarming rise in food costs and increasing risk of hunger in many regions specialists in diverse fields will find this reference work to be especially useful As well those familiar with Dr Small's books or those with an interest in gardening cooking and human health in relation to diet will want to own a copy of this book Publisher's web site

Family Economics and Nutrition Review, 1999 Handbook of Nutrition and Food Carolyn D. Berdanier, Johanna T. Dwyer, Elaine B. Feldman, 2007-08-24 Significantly revised and updated this second edition of the bestselling Handbook of Nutrition and Food welcomes contributions from several new authors including Elaine B Feldman and Johanna Dwyer notable leaders in nutritional science Retaining the high level of scientific research accessible language and attention to detail of the original The Divine Diet Carole Lewis, 2004 The Politics of Fat Laura S. Sims, 2016-09-16 Politics pervades every link in the food chain from the farm to the fork It influences what foods we eat how much they cost what we know about them and how safe they are This book brings the point home by focusing on the vexing issue of dietary fat content known to be a health menace but also an ingredient in many or most of our best loved foods Through this prism Dr Sims explores the politics of food assistance programmes with a case study of the National School Lunch programme agricultural policy for example the price premium paid to farmers for milk with high butterfat content food content with case studies of food labelling and the approval process for fat substitutes and dietary change with a case study of nutrition education programmes The book concludes with consideration of the costs and benefits of government intervention and nonintervention in food policy from the supply side to the demand side and its consequences for human health and happiness The Politics of Fat shows how government policy affects not only breakfast lunch and dinner but also our between meal snacks explores the nexus of health policy and agricultural policy from price supports to trade policy and is written in an accessible style enlivened by discussion provoking case studies

Discovering Nutrition Paul M. Insel, Elaine Turner, Don Ross, 2010 Discovering Nutrition Third Edition is a student friendly introduction to nutrition on a non majors level Coverage of material such as digestion metabolism chemistry and life cycle nutrition is clearly written accessible and engaging to undergraduate students

Meatsplaining Jason Hannan, 2020-10-01 The animal agriculture industry like other profit driven industries aggressively seeks to shield itself from public scrutiny To that end it uses a distinct set of rhetorical strategies to deflect criticism These tactics are fundamental to modern animal agriculture but have long evaded critical analysis In this collection academic and activist contributors investigate the many forms of denialism perpetuated by the animal agriculture industry What strategies does the industry use to avoid questions about its inhumane treatment of animals and its impact on the environment and public health What narratives myths and fantasies does it promote to sustain its image in the public imagination powerful timely and essential David Nibert author of Animal Oppression and Human Violence Domesecration Capitalism and Global Conflict Meatsplaining equips us to identify the lies at the heart of animal agriculture It is an excellent and timely compilation on an exceedingly vexing problem Carol J Adams author of The Sexual Politics of Meat and Burger Meatsplaining is the first book to give an apt name to the animal agriculture industry's relentless campaign of disinformation and denialism Written in a clear lively and accessible style Meatsplaining will surely educate the public about the horrors of animal agriculture Marc Bekoff author of The Animals Agenda Freedom Compassion and Coexistence in the Human Age Cruelty thrives in secrecy and the meat industry is highly skilled at concealing the routine abuse and misery that flourishes on modern farms Meatsplaining cuts through the spin and exposes the meat industry's massive PR machine It explores how Big Meat uses language obfuscation and denial to misdirect the public's attention away from its commodification of sentient animals environmental devastation and the looming health crisis caused by eating animals This book is a must read for animal advocates and anyone else who no longer wants to be lied to Camille Labchuk Executive Director Animal Justice This book provides a necessary corrective to the fantasy world created by meat industry propaganda As we grapple with a global zoonotic pandemic and biodiversity crisis it is urgent for us to start thinking clearly about who and what is on our plates John Sorenson Brock University
