The Only Two Men I Need Trilogy:

The Written Dead Kyle William Bishop, Angela Tenga, 2017-06-19 From Victor Halperin's White Zombie 1932 to George A. Romero's landmark Night of the Living Dead 1968 and AMC's hugely successful The Walking Dead 2010 zombie mythology has become an integral part of popular culture. In a reversal of the typical pattern of adaptation the zombie developed onscreen before appearing in short stories and comic books during the 20th century and more recently as subjects of more traditional novels. This collection of new essays examines some of the most influential and inventive zombie literature from the early stories to the most recent narratives including some told from a zombie perspective. The Great War and Modern Memory Paul Fussell, 2013-08-08 A new edition of Paul Fussell's literate, literary and illuminating account of the Great War now a classic text of literary and cultural criticism.

Habitations of the Veil Rebecka Rutledge Fisher, 2014-06-12 In Habitations of the Veil Rebecka Rutledge Fisher uses theory implicit in W. E. B. Du Bois's use of metaphor to draw out and analyze what she sees as a long tradition of philosophical metaphor in African American literature. She demonstrates how Olaudah Equiano, Frances Ellen Watkins Harper, Zora Neale Hurston, Richard Wright and Ralph Ellison each use metaphors to develop a critical discourse capable of overcoming the limits of narrative language to convey their lived experiences. Fisher's philosophical investigations open these texts to consideration on ontological and epistemological levels in addition to those concerned with literary craft and the politics of black identity.

Joseph Keene Chadwick John Rieder, Joseph H. O'Mealy, Valerie Wayne, 2002-01-01 Joseph Keene Chadwick taught at the University of Hawai'i until his untimely death at the age of thirty-seven in 1992. He was a gifted teacher and scholar of Irish literature. He was also an early advocate for gay studies and Pacific literature and an accomplished translator. In addition to many published essays on these topics he left an unfinished book manuscript on William Butler Yeats's theory of tragedy. This volume which includes two chapters from his book on Yeats presents Chadwick's early interventions into the areas of Irish and gay studies and translation alongside commissioned essays and work by contemporary scholars and writers including Frank McGuinness, Witi Ihimaera, George Haggerty and Elizabeth Butler Cullingford.

Visible and Invisible Whiteness Alice Mikal Craven, 2018-06-01 Visible and Invisible Whiteness examines the complicity between Classical Hollywood narratives or genres and representations of white supremacy in the cinema. Close readings of D. W. Griffith's The Birth of a Nation by James Agee and James Baldwin explore these authors' perspectives on the American mythologies which ground Griffith's film. The intersectionality of Bordwell's theories on Classical Hollywood Narrative versus Art Cinema and Richard Dyer's seminal work on whiteness forms the theoretical base for the book. Featured films are those which have been undervalued or banned due to their hybrid natures with respect to Hollywood and Art Cinema techniques such as Samuel Fuller's White Dog and Jean Renoir's The Southerner. The book offers comparative analyses of American studio-based directors as well as European and European migrant directors. It appeals to scholars of Film Theory, African American and Whiteness Studies. It provides insight for readers concerned about the re emergence of white supremacist tensions in contemporary America      The Tyranny of the Countryside Frederick Ernest Green,1913      The Dinosaur Films of Ray Harryhausen Roy P. Webber,2004 Ray Harryhausens animated creatures sparkled with predatory alertness and subtle quirks of behavior that stamped each with a distinct and memorable personality His use of stop motion animation a method of animating movable models and puppets brought dinosaurs and monsters to life on the silver screen Many animators and special effects wizards like Phil Tippett of Jurassic Park and Jim Aupperle of Planet of Dinosaurs who are still working on prehistoric based films openly credit Ray Harryhausen as having influenced their careers His films are famous for being among the very best of the genre The first chapter of this book chronicles Harryhausens formative years and work on numerous 16mm experiments beginning with his viewing of King Kong in 1933 The next four chapters cover his four feature length dinosaur films The Beast from 20 000 Fathoms The Animal World One Million Years B C and The Valley of Gwangi These chapters provide extensive information about all aspects of the staging of their stop motion content and many additional facets of the overall production process The paleontological accuracy of his saurians from a modern perspective is also examined A chapter on his work and experiences in the 1970s and beyond discusses potential dinosaur projects as well as The Golden Voyage of Sinbad which is not a saurian film but does include the bat winged homunculus An appendix covers a number of dinosaur related films that Harryhausen had a hand in (Spiritual warfare series book 2) Eleazar Ben Michael, 2022-03-06 Many have been puzzled for centuries at the biological creature that science calls homo sapiens humankind. Most people often question what constitutes man's true spiritual nature which is invisible to our sense of sight. There is the quest to know what constitutes the mind, consciousness, the soul, and the essence of our spirit, soul, personality. Many still believe that there may be no definitive answers which will provide the necessary satisfaction about this incorporeal essence of the soul and life of humanity. But how come God made humans the most advanced biological rational beings on the earth plane? Our modern sciences have tried to resolve this great mystery and they have only successfully unveiled the mortal body, the outer self, but yet to understand the inner spiritual nature. The psalmist David wrote many centuries ago asking the same significant question that has plagued humanity throughout time. As King David reflected upon this unique being, humanity, he asked this central question: What is man, humankind, that you are mindful of him and the son of man that you cared for him? Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honour. Psalm 8:4-5 ESV: How is he a spiritual being imprisoned in flesh and bones with skin on the outside? How does his soul, consciousness work in harmony with his body and mind? You may be asking if we are a soul as an entity or as a material object that we could carry around? How does man's inner spiritual body help him to relate to the material universe? This book is the second book in the soul trilogy series and it is a must-read resource on the subject of spirituality, mindfulness, and the nature of the inner human spirit. Soul It hopes to guide readers to discover the mystery of the inner self and its relationship to the spirit world.

Ancient Greek Beliefs Perry L. Westmoreland, 2007 Ancient Greek Beliefs explores the mysteries of the ancient myths and religious beliefs of a great people. The text is divided into three sections: Greek mythology, the ancient Greeks, and conclusions. A brief history and lengthy glossary are included. The book is designed as a basic text for the introduction to ancient Greek mythology and beliefs, and the text muses about the religious lessons we might learn from them. It contains abridged stories of Greek mythology including the extant Greek plays and considers portions of the works of the great writers including Aeschylus, Euripides, Hesiod, Homer, Plato, and Sophocles. It opens a comprehensive window into the lives of these great ancient people.

Casting Light on the Shadows Bernd Horn, Tony Balasevicius, 2007-02-28 Since 9/11 Canadian Special Operations Forces formerly in the shadows have become the force of choice. This book provides a solid foundation for SOF theory, historical background, and evolution and highlights ongoing developments in SOF.

The Generic Closet Alfred L. Martin, 2021-04-06 Even after a rise in gay and Black representation and production on TV in the 1990s, the sitcom became a generic closet restricting Black gay characters with narrative tropes. Drawing from 20 interviews with credited episode writers, key show runners, and Black gay men, The Generic Closet situates Black cast sitcoms as a unique genre that uses Black gay characters in service of the series' heterosexual main cast. Alfred L. Martin Jr. argues that the Black community is considered to be antigay due to misrepresentation by shows that aired during the family viewing hour and that were written for the imagined traditional Black family. Martin considers audience reception industrial production practices and authorship to unpack the claim that Black gay characters are written into Black cast sitcoms such as Moesha Good News and Let's Stay Together in order to closet Black gayness By exploring how systems of power produce ideologies about Black gayness The Generic Closet deconstructs the concept of a monolithic Black audience and investigates whether this generic closet still exists The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1892 Paul Auster's Ghosts María Laura Arce Álvarez,2018-06-13 The following book explores the intertextual relationship between Paul Auster's first and most remarkable work The New York Trilogy 1987 and the works of certain American and European writers who shaped this novel and Auster's future works Auster's The New York Trilogy is a novel formed by an intertextual dialogue which in some cases it is explicit mentioning authors and books intentionally and in others implicit provoked by Auster's admiration for authors such as Samuel Beckett or product of his role as a translator as it occurs with Maurice Blanchot These two different ways of intertextuality essentially show Auster's influence of the American Renaissance Samuel Beckett's fiction and the work of the writer and critic Maurice Blanchot In these terms this book proposes an exhaustive analysis of City of Glass and Herman Melville's Bartleby the Scrivener Ghosts and Edgar Allan Poe's William Wilson and The Locked Room and Nathaniel Hawthorne's Fanshawe The two last chapters also offer a thorough analysis of the whole trilogy in comparison to Samuel Beckett's trilogy Molloy Malone Dies and The Unnamable and finally introduces a study of the trilogy as a fictionalization of Maurice Blanchot's literary theory Counternarrative Possibilities James Dorson,2016-06-09 Counternarrative Possibilities reads Cormac McCarthy's Westerns against the backdrop of the two formative national tropes of virgin land from the 1950s and homeland after 9/11 in American mythology While both of these figures have been used in exceptionalist discourse about the United States they are also intimately connected with the emergence and transformation of the field of American Studies Using an integrative approach to read McCarthy's Westerns in relation to both their ideological context and the institutionalized ideology critique that has shaped their reception the book shows how McCarthy's Westerns simultaneously counter the national narratives underlying the tropes of virgin land and homeland and reinvest them with new potentially transformative meaning McCarthy's work of the 1980s and 1990s both draws on postmodern strategies of narrative disruption and departs from them by staging a return to narrative that prefigures recent postpostmodern developments Departing from prevailing accounts of McCarthy that place him in relation to his literary antecedents Counternarrative Possibilities takes a forward looking approach that reads McCarthy's work as a key influence on millennial fiction Weaving together disciplinary history with longstanding debates over the relationship between aesthetics and politics Counternarrative Possibilities is at once an exploration of the limits of ideology critique in the 21st century and a timely reconsideration of McCarthy's work after postmodernism The Freeman Francis Neilson,Albert Jay Nock,1923
